FEDERAL REPORTING REQUIREMENTS FOR CHURCHES
All references in this publication to line numbers on IRS forms are for the draft versions of the 2020 forms since the final forms had not been released by the IRS as of the date of publication.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

This book contains the basic information you need to complete your 2020 federal income tax return. It gives special attention to several forms and schedules and the sections of each form most relevant to ministers. The companion resource — Federal Reporting Requirements for Churches — helps churches comply with their federal tax reporting requirements.

This guide is divided into the following sections:

• Part 1: Introduction — This section reviews tax highlights for 2020 and presents several preliminary questions you should consider before preparing your tax return.

• Part 2: Special Rules for Ministers — In this section, you learn whether or not you are a Minister for Tax Purposes, whether you are an employee or self-employed for both income tax and Social Security purposes, and how you pay your taxes.

• Part 3: Step-by-Step Tax Return Preparation — This section explains how to complete the most common tax forms and schedules for ministers.

• Part 4: Comprehensive Examples and Sample Forms — This section shows a sample tax return prepared for an ordained minister and spouse and for a retired minister and spouse.

• Federal Reporting Requirements for Churches — This resource provides assistance to churches (especially treasurers and bookkeepers) in filing federal tax forms.

TAX HIGHLIGHTS FOR 2020

1. The Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (TCJA)

On December 22, 2017, President Donald Trump signed into law the $1.5 trillion Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 (TCJA). In brief, the Act amends the Internal Revenue Code to reduce tax rates and modify credits and deductions for individuals and businesses.

With respect to individuals, the Act does the following:

• Replaces the seven existing tax brackets (10%, 15%, 25%, 28%, 33%, 35%, and 39.6%) with seven new and lower brackets (10%, 12%, 22%, 24%, 32%, 35%, and 37%)

• Substantially increases the standard deduction, thereby significantly reducing the number of taxpayers who will itemize deductions

• Repeals the deduction for personal exemptions

•Eliminates the deduction for moving expenses as well as the employer tax-free reimbursement

•Allows taxpayers to deduct an amount for cash charitable contributions up to 60% of adjusted gross income (AGI)

•Doubles the child tax credit and establishes a new family tax credit

•Repeals most miscellaneous itemized deductions

•Limits the mortgage interest deduction for debt incurred after November 2, 2017, to mortgages of up to $750,000 (previously $1 million)

•Caps the deduction for state and local income or sales taxes not paid or accrued in a trade or business at $10,000

•Consolidates and repeals several education-related deductions and credits

•Broadened the use of section 529 plans for expenses below the college level of education

•Modifies the Alternative Minimum Tax (AMT) to make it apply to fewer taxpayers

•Modifies the estate and generation-skipping transfer taxes to exempt most taxpayers

2. Other tax changes of interest to ministers and church staff

There were several tax developments in prior years that affect tax reporting by both ministers and churches for 2020 and future years. Here is a rundown of some of the key provisions:

• You may be able to claim the earned income credit (EIC) for 2020 if (1) you do not have a qualifying child and you earned less than $15,820 ($21,710 if married filing jointly (MFJ)); (2) a qualifying child lived with you and you earned less than $41,756 ($47,646 if MFJ); (3) two qualifying children lived with you and you earned less than $47,440 ($53,330 if MFJ); or (4) three or more qualifying children lived with you and you earned less than $50,954 ($56,844 if MFJ). The maximum EIC for 2020 is (1) $538 with no qualifying child; (2) $3,584 with one qualifying child; (3) $5,920 with two qualifying children; and (4) $6,660 with three or more qualifying children.

• For contributions in 2020 to a Traditional Individual Retirement Account (IRA), the deduction phaseout range for an individual covered by a retirement plan at work begins at income of $104,000 for joint filers and $65,000 for a single person or head of household. These are 2020 amounts that increase to $105,000 for joint filers and $66,000 for a single person or head of household for 2021.

- The dollar limit on annual elective deferrals an individual may make to a 403(b) retirement plan is $19,500 for 2020. It remains at $19,500 for 2021.

- The catch-up contribution limit on elective deferrals to a 403(b) retirement plan for individuals who had attained age 50 by the end of the year was $6,500 for 2020. For 2021, the limit remains at $6,500.

- The IRS has announced that it will not issue private letter rulings addressing the question of “whether an individual is a minister of the gospel for federal tax purposes.” This means taxpayers will not be able to obtain clarification from the IRS in a letter ruling on their status as a minister for any one or more of the following matters: (1) eligibility for a parsonage exclusion or housing allowance; (2) eligibility for exemption from self-employment taxes (SECA); (3) self-employed status for Social Security; or (4) exemption of wages from income tax withholding. The IRS also has announced that it will not address “whether amounts distributed to a retired minister from a pension or annuity plan should be excludible from the minister’s gross income as a parsonage allowance.”

- The standard business mileage rate was 57.5 cents per mile for business miles driven during 2020. The standard business mileage rate for 2021 is 56 cents per mile.

- Many churches employ retired persons who are receiving Social Security benefits. Persons younger than full retirement age may have their Social Security retirement benefits cut if they earn more than a specified amount. Full retirement age (the age at which you are entitled to full retirement benefits) for persons born in 1943–1954 is 66 years. If you are under full retirement age for the entire year, $1 is deducted from your benefit payments for every $2 you earn above the annual limit. For 2021 that limit is $18,960. In the year you reach full retirement age, your monthly benefit payments are reduced by $1 for every $3 you earn above a different limit. For 2021 that limit is $50,520 ($4,210 per month), but only earnings before the month you reach full retirement age are counted.

- Will Congress give ministers another opportunity to revoke an exemption from Social Security? It does not look likely, at least for now. No legislation is pending that would provide ministers with this option.

- In March 2019, a three-judge panel of a federal appeals court (the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals) unanimously affirmed the constitutionality of the housing allowance.

- In the CARES Act of 2020, Congress enacted a provision in the legislation that allows non-itemizers an above-the-line qualified charitable deduction of up to $500 for charitable contributions.

PRELIMINARY QUESTIONS

Below are several questions you should consider before preparing your 2020 federal tax return.

Q. Must ministers pay federal income taxes?

A. Yes. Ministers are not exempt from paying federal income taxes.

Q. How much income must I earn to be required to file a tax return?

A. Generally, ministers are required to file a federal income tax return if they have earnings of $400 or more to report their SECA. Different rules apply to ministers who are exempt from SECA.

Q. What records should I keep?

A. You should keep all receipts, canceled checks, and other evidence to prove amounts you claim as deductions, exclusions, or credits. Documentation should be maintained for six years from the time you file your tax return.

Q. What is the deadline for filing my federal income tax return?

A. The instructions to Form 1040 state that the deadline for filing Form 1040 for the 2020 tax year is April 15, 2021. As of this publication there are no congressional or executive discussions to extend this deadline.

Q. What if I am unable to file my tax return by the deadline?

A. You can obtain an automatic six-month extension (from April 15 to October 15, 2021) to file your 2020 Form 1040 if you file Form 4868 by April 15, 2021, with the IRS service center for your area. Your Form 1040 can be filed at any time during the six-month extension period. An extension relieves you from only the obligation to file your return; it is not an extension of the obligation to pay your taxes. You must make an estimate of your tax for 2020 and pay the estimated tax with your Form 4868.

Q. Should I prepare my own tax return?

A. The answer depends on your ability and experience in working with financial information and in preparing tax returns. Keep in mind: Ministers’ taxes present a number of unique rules, but these rules are not complex. Many ministers will be able to prepare their own tax returns if they understand the unique rules that apply. These rules are summarized in this document. Easily accessible tax software will also accommodate the unique rules applicable to ministers, but it does not relieve a minister from understanding the rules in order to accurately utilize the software. On the other hand, if you experienced unusual events in 2020, such as the sale or purchase of a home or the sale of other capital assets, it may be prudent to obtain professional tax assistance. The IRS provides a service called Taxpayer Assistance, but it is not liable in any way if its agents provide you with incorrect answers to your questions. Free taxpayer publications are available from the IRS, and many of these are helpful to ministers.

➤ Recommendation: If you need professional assistance, here are some tips that may help you find a competent tax professional:

- Ask other ministers in your community for their recommendations.

- If possible, use tax professionals such as a certified public accountant (CPA) or an enrolled agent (EA) who specializes in tax law and who is familiar with the rules that apply to ministers. A CPA has completed a rigorous educational program, and both CPAs and EAs have passed exams. Both must keep up continuing education and are subject to strict ethical requirements. However, the tax law is broad and complicated, so it should not be assumed that all CPAs or EAs are familiar with the unique rules applicable to ministers.

- Ask local tax professionals if they work with ministers and, if so, with how many.

- Ask local tax professionals a few questions to test their familiarity with ministers’ tax issues. For example, ask whether ministers are employees or self-employed for Social Security. Anyone familiar with ministers’ taxes will know that ministers are self-employed for Social Security with respect to their ministerial duties. Or ask a tax professional if a minister’s church salary is subject to income tax withholding. The answer is no, and anyone familiar with ministers’ taxes should be able to answer this question.
WHO IS A MINISTER FOR FEDERAL TAX PURPOSES?

Key Point: The IRS has its own criteria for determining who is a Minister for Tax Purposes. The criteria the IRS uses to determine who is a minister are not necessarily the same as those used by churches and denominations. Whether or not one qualifies as a Minister for Tax Purposes is a very important question, since special tax and reporting rules apply to ministers under federal tax law. These rules include:

- Eligibility for housing allowances
- Self-employed status for Social Security
- Exemption of wages from income tax withholding (ministers use the quarterly estimated tax procedure to prepay their taxes, unless they elect voluntary withholding)
- Eligibility, under very limited circumstances, to exempt themselves from SECA

These special rules apply only to persons qualifying as a minister and with respect to compensation received in the exercise of ministerial services.

Example: Pastor J is an ordained minister employed by a church. In addition, he works a second job for a secular employer. Assume that Pastor J qualifies as a minister for federal tax purposes. Since his church duties constitute services performed in the exercise of his ministry, the church can designate a portion of his compensation as a housing allowance. However, the secular employer cannot designate any portion of Pastor J's compensation as a housing allowance, since this work would not be the exercise of ministry.

According to the IRS, ministers are individuals who are duly ordained, commissioned, or licensed by a religious body constituting a church or church denomination. They are given the authority to conduct religious worship, perform sacramental functions, and administer ordinances or sacraments according to the tenets and practices of that church or denomination. If a church or denomination ordains some ministers and licenses or commissions others, anyone licensed or commissioned must be able to perform substantially all the religious functions of an ordained minister to be treated as a Minister for Tax Purposes. See IRS Publication 517.

ARE MINISTERS EMPLOYEES OR SELF-EMPLOYED FOR FEDERAL TAX PURPOSES?

Key Point: Most ministers are employees for federal income tax purposes under the tests currently used by the IRS and the courts and should receive a Form W-2 from their church reporting their taxable income. However, ministers are self-employed for Social Security (with respect to services they perform in the exercise of their ministry).

Ministers have a dual tax status. For federal income taxes they ordinarily are employees, but for Social Security they are self-employed with regard to services performed in the exercise of their ministry. These two rules are summarized below:

1. Income taxes. For federal income tax reporting, most ministers are employees under the tests currently used by the IRS. This means that they should receive a Form W-2 from their church at the end of each year (rather than a Form 1099). Formerly, it meant that they reported their employee business expenses on Schedule A rather than on Schedule C. (The deduction for employee business expenses as Miscellaneous Itemized Deductions on Schedule A is suspended through 2025, so employee business expenses are not deductible at this time.) A few ministers are self-employed, such as some traveling evangelists and some interim pastors. Also, many ministers who are employees of a local church are self-employed for other purposes. For example, the minister of a local church almost always will be an employee but will be self-employed with regard to guest speaking appearances in other churches and services performed directly for individual members (such as weddings and funerals).

Example: Pastor B is a minister at First Baptist Church. He is an employee for federal income tax reporting purposes with respect to his church salary. However, he is self-employed with respect to honoraria he receives for speaking in other churches and for compensation church members give him for performing personal services such as weddings and funerals. The church issues Pastor B a Form W-2 reporting his church salary. Pastor B reports this amount as wages on line 1 of Form 1040. He reports his compensation and expenses from the outside self-employment activities on Schedule C.

Key Point: Most ministers will be better off financially being treated as employees, since the value of various fringe benefits will be tax free, the risk of an IRS audit is substantially lower, and reporting as an employee avoids the additional taxes and penalties that often apply to self-employed ministers who are audited by the IRS and reclassified as employees.

Key Point: Ministers and other church staff members should carefully review their Form W-2 to be sure it does not report more income than was actually received or fail to report taxable benefits provided by the church. If an error was made, the church should issue a corrected tax form (Form W-2c).

The Tax Court test. The United States Tax Court has created a seven-factor test for determining whether a minister is an employee or self-employed for federal income tax reporting purposes. The test requires consideration of the following seven factors: (1) the degree of control exercised by the employer over the details of the work; (2) which party invests in the facilities used in the work; (3) the opportunity of the individual for profit or loss; (4) whether or not the employer has the right to discharge the individual; (5) whether the work is part of the employer’s regular business; (6) the permanency of the relationship; and (7) the relationship the parties believe they are creating. Most ministers will be employees under this test.

2. Social Security. The federal tax code treats ministers as self-employed for Social Security with respect to services performed in the exercise of their ministry — even if they report their income taxes as employees. This means that ministers must pay Social Security (SECA) by completing Form W-2 from their church. A minister’s opposition to Social Security benefits earned through his participation in the system through secular employment.

The deadline is the due date of the federal tax return for the second year in which a minister has net earnings from self-employment of $400 or more, any part of which comes from ministerial services. Further, the exemption is available only to ministers who are opposed on the basis of religious considerations to the acceptance of benefits under the Social Security program (or any other public insurance system that provides retirement or medical benefits). A minister who files the exemption application may still purchase life insurance or participate in retirement programs administered by non-governmental institutions (such as a life insurance company). Additionally, the exemption does not require a minister to revoke all rights to Social Security benefits earned through his participation in the system through secular employment.

A minister’s opposition must be to accepting benefits under Social Security (or any other public insurance program) that are related to services performed as a minister. Economic, or any other non-religious considerations, are not a valid basis for the exemption; neither is opposition to paying SECA.

The exemption is effective only when it is approved by the IRS. Few ministers qualify for the exemption. Many younger ministers opt out of SECA without realizing that they do not qualify for the exemption. A decision to opt out of SECA is irrevocable. But section 4.19.6.4.11.3 (02-13-2020) of the IRS Internal Revenue Manual explicitly recognizes that under some conditions ministers who have exempted themselves from SECA solely for economic reasons can revoke their exemption. The IRS does have the authority to revoke a minister’s decision to opt out of SECA if it is determined the decision is based on economic reasons rather than theological reasons. Check with a tax attorney, CPA, or EA for additional information.

An exemption from SECA applies only to compensation for ministerial services. Ministers who have exempted themselves from SECA must pay Social Security taxes on any non-ministerial compensation they receive. And they remain eligible for Social Security benefits based on their non-ministerial employment, assuming that they have worked enough quarters. Generally, 40 quarters are required. Also, the Social Security Administration (SSA) has informed the author of this text that ministers who exempt themselves from SECA may qualify for Social Security benefits (including retirement and Medicare) on the basis of their spouse’s coverage, if the spouse had enough credits.

Key Point: The amount of earnings required for a quarter of coverage in 2021 is $1,470. A quarter of coverage is the basic unit for determining whether a worker is insured under the Social Security program.

Key Point: Ministers who work after they retire must continue to pay SECA on their ministerial income and...

EXEMPTION FROM SECA

If ministers meet several requirements, they may exempt themselves from SECA with respect to their ministerial earnings. Among other things, the exemption application (Form 4361) must be submitted to the IRS within a limited time period.
wages (unless they exempted themselves from SECA as a minister and they are employed in a ministerial capacity). However, amounts received from retirement plans related to ministerial services are not subject to SECA.

HOW DO MINISTERS PAY THEIR TAXES?

Key Point: Ministers must prepay their income taxes and SECA using the estimated tax procedure, unless they have entered into a voluntary withholding arrangement with their church with respect to federal income tax only.

As noted above, ministers’ wages are exempt from federal income tax withholding. This means that a church may not withhold income taxes from a minister’s paycheck without specific written permission. And, since ministers are self-employed for Social Security with respect to their ministerial services, a church does not withhold the employee’s share of FICA from a minister’s wages. Ministers must prepay their income taxes and SECA using the estimated tax procedure, unless they enter into a voluntary withholding arrangement with their church. Estimated taxes must be paid in quarterly installments. If your estimated tax paid for the current year is less than your actual tax, you may have to pay an underpayment penalty. You can amend your estimated tax payments during the year if your circumstances change. For example, if your income or deductions increase unexpectedly, you should refigure your estimated tax liability for the year and amend your remaining quarterly payments accordingly or submit additional payments.

You will need to make estimated tax payments for 2021 if you expect to owe at least $1,000 in tax for 2021 after subtracting your withholding and credits and if you expect your withholding and credits to be less than the smaller of (1) 90% of the tax to be shown on your 2021 tax return or (2) 100% of the tax shown on your 2020 tax return (110% if AGI exceeds $150,000 or, if married filing separately, more than $75,000). Your 2020 tax return must cover all 12 months.

The four-step procedure for reporting and prepaying estimated taxes for 2021 is summarized below.

Step 1. Estimated tax payments may be paid using either of the following methods:

- Obtain a copy of IRS Form 1040-ES for 2021 before April 15, 2021. You can obtain forms by calling the IRS toll-free forms hotline at 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676) or from the IRS website (IRS.gov). If you paid estimated taxes last year, you should receive a copy of your 2021 Form 1040-ES in the mail with payment vouchers preprinted with your name, address, and Social Security number (SSN).

- Enroll in the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System® (EFTPS) at EFTPS.gov and establish an online account to be used to submit payments. You may also use IRS.gov/Payments to submit payments.

Step 2. Compute your estimated tax for 2021 using the Form 1040-ES worksheet. Ministers’ quarterly estimated tax payments should take into account both income taxes and SECA.

Step 3. Pay one-fourth of your total estimated taxes for 2021 in each of four quarterly installments as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>For the Period</th>
<th>Due Date</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>January 1–March 31</td>
<td>April 15, 2021</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>April 1–May 31</td>
<td>June 15, 2021</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>June 1–August 31</td>
<td>September 15, 2021</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>September 1–December 31</td>
<td>January 18, 2022</td>
</tr>

You must send each payment to the IRS accompanied by one of the four payment vouchers contained in Form 1040-ES. If enrolled in the EFTPS system, all four payments may be prescheduled for automatic payment at the scheduled dates. A refund associated with an overpayment of your taxes for 2020 may be applied to your estimated tax payments due for 2021.

Warning: If your 2020 tax return is not completed by April 15, 2021, you must go ahead and begin making your estimated tax payments to avoid potential underpayment penalties. A tax refund on your 2020 tax return can be used to adjust any estimated tax payment not made at the time of the filing of the return. Do not wait until your 2020 return is completed to determine and pay your 2021 estimated tax payments.

Step 4. After the close of 2021, compute your actual tax liability on Form 1040. Only then will you know your actual income, deductions, exclusions, and credits. If you overpaid your estimated taxes (that is, actual taxes computed on Form 1040 are less than all of your estimated tax payments plus any withholding), you can elect to have the overpayment credited against your first 2022 quarterly estimated tax payment or spread it out in any way you choose among any or all of your next four quarterly installments. Alternatively, you can request a refund of the overpayment. If you underpaid your estimated taxes (that is, your actual tax liability exceeds the total of your estimated tax payments plus any withholding), you may have to pay a penalty.

Key Point: Ministers who report their income taxes as employees can request that their employing church voluntarily withhold income taxes from their wages.
Simply furnish the church with a completed Form W-4 Employee’s Withholding Certificate or other written authorization. Since ministers are not employees for Social Security with respect to ministerial compensation, the church does not withhold the employee’s share of FICA. However, ministers can request on Form W-4 (line 4c) that an additional amount of income tax be withheld to cover their estimated SECA liability for the year. The excess income tax withheld is a credit that is applied against the minister’s SECA liability. Many churches understandably withhold FICA in addition to income taxes for a minister who requests voluntary withholding. Such withholding must be reported as income tax withheld. Withholding income tax is a preferential method of paying taxes, since it is considered to have been equally paid throughout the year, no matter the date it is actually withheld. This means withholding can be adjusted later in the year, and it is treated as if it was paid evenly throughout the year, thus avoiding potential underpayment penalties.
This step-by-step analysis covers these forms and schedules: Form 1040 is the basic document you will use. It summarizes all of your tax information. Details are reported on supplementary schedules and forms.

Schedule A is for itemized deductions for medical and dental expenses, taxes, interest, certain disaster-related casualty losses, and charitable contributions.

Key Point: Beginning with tax year 2018, no miscellaneous itemized deductions that formerly were subject to a 2% of AGI limitation are allowed. This and other changes to Schedule A are addressed later in this guide.

Schedule B is for reporting dividend and interest income.

Schedule C is for reporting your income and expenses from business activities you conduct other than in your capacity as an employee. Examples would be fees received for guest speaking appearances in other churches or fees received directly from members for performing personal services, such as weddings and funerals.

Schedule SE is for reporting Social Security taxes due on your self-employment income. Ministers use this schedule since they are deemed self-employed for Social Security with respect to ministerial services (unless they have obtained an approved Form 4361 from the IRS).

These forms and schedules, along with others, are included in the illustrated example in Part 4 of this guide. These forms and schedules are the ones most commonly used by ministers. You can obtain them by calling the IRS toll-free forms hotline at 1-800-TAX-FORM (1-800-829-3676). They also are available on the IRS website (IRS.gov).

Form 1040

Step 1: Filing Status

Select the appropriate filing status from the five options listed in this section of Form 1040.

Step 2: Name and Address

Print or type the information in the spaces provided. If you are married filing a separate return, enter your spouse’s name in the space provided in the “Filing Status” section at the top of Form 1040. If you filed a joint return for 2019 and you are filing a joint return for 2020 with the same spouse, be sure to enter your names and SSNs in the same order as on your 2019 return.

If you plan to move after filing your return, use Form 8822 to notify the IRS of your new address. If you (or your spouse) changed your name because of marriage, divorce, etc., be sure to report the change to the SSA before filing your return. This prevents delays in processing your return and issuing refunds. It also safeguards your future Social Security benefits. If a name change with the SSA has not been completed, the name on file with the SSA must be used in filing your tax return.

Enter your P.O. Box number only if your Post Office™ does not deliver mail to your home.

For taxpayers with foreign mailing addresses, spaces have been added to include the name of the foreign country/province/state and a foreign postal code.

If you want $3 to go to the presidential election campaign fund, check the box labeled “you”. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse can also have $3 go to the fund (check “spouse”). If you check a box, your tax or refund will not change.

Step 3: Dependents

In the past, taxpayers were allowed a personal exemption for themselves and certain dependents. While personal exemptions were repealed after 2017, it is still necessary to determine who qualifies as dependents and include them on the return. Dependents determine various credits, such as the child tax credit, as well as other tax-related items, such as educational credits, medical expenses, child care credit, and EIC, just to name a few.

Step 4: Income

Several items of income are reported on lines 1–9 of Form 1040, including amounts carried over from Schedule 1 lines 1–9. The most important of these (for ministers) are discussed below.

Key Point: Some items, such as the housing allowance, are not reported as income. They are called exclusions and are explained below.

Line 1. Wages, salaries, tips, etc.

As an employee, you should receive a Form W-2 from your church reporting your wages at the end of each year. Report this amount on line 1.
Determining church wages or salary. Besides a salary, ministers’ wages reported on Form W-2 may include several other items, including the following:

- Bonuses
- The cost of sending a minister to the Holy Land (if paid by a church)
- Most Christmas and special occasion offerings
- Retirement gifts paid by a church
- The portion of a minister’s SECA paid by a church
- Personal use of a church-owned vehicle
- Purchases of church property for less than fair market value
- Business expense reimbursements under a non-accountable plan
- Imputed cost of group term life insurance coverage exceeding $50,000
- Church reimbursements of a spouse’s travel expenses incurred while accompanying a minister on a business trip (unless the spouse’s presence serves a legitimate business purpose and the spouse’s expenses are reimbursed under an accountable arrangement)
- Discretionary funds established by a church for a minister to spend on current needs — if the minister is allowed to distribute funds for his personal benefit or does not have to account for the funds in an arrangement similar to an accountable expense reimbursement plan
- Imputed interest from below-market interest loans of at least $10,000 made by a church to a minister (some exceptions apply)
- Cancellation of a minister’s debt to a church
- Severance pay
- Payment of a minister’s personal expenses by the church
- Love gifts

Key Point: The IRS can assess intermediate sanctions in the form of substantial excise taxes (i.e., monetary penalties) against ministers who benefit from an excess benefit transaction. Sanctions apply only to a minister who is a “disqualified person” (meaning an officer, director, or other control party, as well as relatives of such persons). In some cases the IRS can assess additional penalties against members of a church board that approved an excess benefit transaction. Excess benefit transactions may occur if a church pays a minister an excessive salary, makes a large retirement or other special occasion gift to a minister, gives church property (such as a parsonage) to the minister, or sells church property to the minister at an unreasonably low price. Sanctions may be avoided if the compensation is approved by an independent board on the basis of outside comparable data such as independent compensation surveys or fair market evaluations and the basis for the board’s decision is documented.

Key Point: The IRS has ruled that disqualified persons receive automatic excess benefits resulting in intermediate sanctions, regardless of amount, if they use church assets (vehicles, homes, credit cards, computers, etc.) for personal purposes or receive non-accountable expense reimbursements (not supported by adequate documentation of business purpose), unless such benefits are reported as taxable income by the church on the disqualified person’s Form W-2 or by the disqualified person on his or her Form 1040 for the year in which the benefits are provided. The concept of automatic excess benefits directly affects the compensation practices of most churches and exposes some ministers and church board members to intermediate sanctions.

If some of these items were not reported on your Form W-2, they still must be reported as income. Your church should issue a corrected Form W-2 (Form W-2c) for the year in which one or more items of taxable income were not reported on your Form W-2. If you receive a Form W-2c and have filed an income tax return for the year shown, you may have to file an amended return. Compare amounts on Form W-2c with those reported on your income tax return. If the corrected amounts change your U.S. income tax, file Form 1040X Amended U.S. Individual Income Tax Return with Copy B of Form W-2c to amend the return you previously filed. You, the taxpayer, have the ultimate responsibility to report all taxable income even if your church does not properly report the income.

In addition to what is reported on Form W-2 (or Form W-2c), line 1 will also report the amount of excess housing allowance (the amount by which the housing allowance exceeds the lesser of the minister’s housing expenses or the fair rental value of the minister’s home, furnished, plus utilities). IRS Publication 517 states: “Include this amount in the total on . . . Form 1040, line 1. On the dotted line next to line 1, enter ‘Excess allowance’ and the amount.”

Items not reported on line 1. Some kinds of income are not taxable. These items are called exclusions. Most exclusions apply in computing both income taxes and SECA. The housing allowance is an example of an exclusion that applies only to income taxes and not to SECA. Some of the more common exclusions for ministers include:

Gifts. Gifts, as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and the courts, are excludible from taxable income so long as they are not compensation for services. However, employers are not permitted to give tax-free gifts to employees. Likewise, the IRS and the courts have ruled that gifts ministers receive directly from members of their congregations may not always be excluded as gifts from taxable income. Before excluding gifts from taxable income, the minister should consult with a CPA, EA, or a tax attorney.

Life insurance and inheritances. Life insurance proceeds and inheritances are excludible from taxable income. Income earned before distributions of proceeds is generally taxable as income.

Employer-paid group life insurance. Employees may exclude the cost of employer-provided group term life insurance so long as the amount of coverage does not exceed $50,000.

Tuition reductions. School employees may exclude from their taxable income a qualified tuition reduction provided by their employer. A qualified tuition reduction is a reduction in tuition charged to employees or their spouses or dependent children by an employer that is an educational institution.

Lodging. The value of lodging furnished to a minister, i.e., a parsonage, is excluded from income. This exclusion is not available in the computation of SECA. The value of lodging furnished to a non-minister employee on an employer’s premises and for the employer’s convenience may be excludible from taxable income if the employee is required to accept the lodging as a condition of employment.

Educational assistance. Amounts paid by an employer for an employee’s tuition, fees, and books may be excludible from the employee’s taxable income if the church has adopted a written educational assistance plan. The exclusion may not exceed $5,250 per year.

Employer-provided childcare. An employer can exclude from the employee’s wages the value of benefits provided to an employee under a dependent care assistance program if (1) the care was provided so you (and your spouse if filing jointly) could work or look for work; (2) the care was for one or more qualifying persons; (3) the person who provided the care wasn’t your spouse, the parent of your qualifying child, or a person whom you can claim as a dependent. If your child provided the care, he or she must have been age 19 or older by the end of 2020, and he or she can’t be your dependent; and (4) you report the required information about the care provider on line 1 (Form 2441). An employee can generally exclude from gross income up to $5,000 of benefits received under a dependent care assistance program each year. This limit is reduced to $2,500 for married employees filing separate returns. However, the exclusion can’t be more than the smaller of the earned income of either the employee or the employee’s spouse. You can’t exclude dependent care assistance from the wages of a highly compensated employee unless the benefits provided under the program don’t favor highly compensated employees. For this exclusion, a highly compensated employee for 2020 is an employee who received more than $125,000 in pay for 2019. For the 2021 plan year, it is an employee who earns more than $130,000 in 2020. For more information on the earned income limit, see IRS Publication 503.

Key Point: Some exclusions are available only to taxpayers who report their income taxes as employees and not as self-employed persons. Many, however, apply to both employees and self-employed persons.

There are four other exclusions that are explained below — the housing allowance, tax-sheltered annuities (TSAs), qualified scholarships, and sale of a home.

Housing Allowance

Key Point: The housing allowance was challenged in federal court as an unconstitutional preference for religion. In 2019, a federal appeals court rejected the challenge and affirmed the constitutionality of the housing allowance.

The most important tax benefit available to ministers who own or rent their homes is the housing allowance exclusion. Ministers who own or rent their homes do not pay federal income taxes on the amount of their compensation that their employing church designates in advance as a housing allowance, to the extent that (1) the allowance represents compensation for ministerial services; (2) it is used to pay housing expenses; and (3) it does not exceed the fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities). Housing-related expenses include mortgage payments, rent, utilities, repairs, furnishings, insurance, property taxes, additions, and maintenance.

A church cannot designate a housing allowance retroactively. Some churches fail to designate housing allowances prospectively and thereby deprive ministers of an important tax benefit.

Ministers who live in a church-owned parsonage do not pay federal income taxes on the fair rental value of the parsonage. Ministers who live in a church parsonage and incur any out-of-pocket expenses in maintaining the parsonage (such as utilities, property taxes, insurance, furnishings, or lawn care) should be sure that their employing church designates in advance a portion of their annual cash compensation as a parsonage allowance. The amount so designated is not reported as

$ Tax Tip: Ministers who live in a church parsonage and incur any out-of-pocket expenses in maintaining the parsonage (such as utilities, property taxes, insurance, furnishings, or lawn care) should be sure that their employing church designates in advance a portion of their annual cash compensation as a parsonage allowance. The amount so designated is not reported as wages on the minister’s Form W-2 at the end of the year (if the allowance exceeds the actual expenses, the difference must be reported as income by the minister). This is an important tax benefit for ministers living in a church-provided parsonage. Unfortunately, many of these ministers are not aware of this benefit or are not taking advantage of it.

$ Tax Tip: Ministers who own their homes lose the largest component of their housing allowance exclusion when they pay off their home mortgage loan. Many ministers in this position have obtained home equity loans or a conventional loan secured by a mortgage on their otherwise debt-free home and have claimed their payments under these kinds of loans as a housing expense in computing their housing allowance exclusion. The Tax Court has ruled that this is permissible only if the loan proceeds were spent on housing-related expenses.

$ Tax Tip: Ministers should be sure that the designation of a housing or parsonage allowance for the next year is on the agenda of the church (or church board) for one of its final meetings during the current year. The designation should be an official action, and it should be duly recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The IRS also recognizes designations included in employment contracts and budget line items — assuming in each case that the designation was appropriately adopted in advance by the church and supported by underlying documentation as to each minister’s anticipated housing expenses.

The rental value of a parsonage and a housing allowance are exclusions only for federal income tax reporting purposes. Ministers cannot exclude a housing allowance or the fair rental value of a parsonage when computing SECA unless they are retired. The tax code specifies that SECA does not apply to “the rental value of any parsonage or any parsonage allowance provided after the [minister] retires.”

States vary in the tax treatment of the housing allowance, so ministers should check their state income tax rules to determine the housing allowance rules for state income taxes.

The housing allowance is available to ministers whether they report their income taxes as employees or as self-employed (whether the church issues them a Form W-2 or a Form 1099).

Housing Expenses to Include in Computing Your Housing Allowance Exclusion

Ministers who own or rent their homes should take the following expenses into account in computing their housing allowance exclusion:

- Down payment on a home (It is often difficult to exclude the full amount of a down payment for a new home, since a housing allowance is nontaxable only to the extent that it does not exceed the lesser of the amount designated by a minister’s church, the actual housing expenses, or the fair rental value of a minister’s home, furnished, plus utilities.)
- Mortgage payments on a loan to purchase or improve your home (include both interest and principal)
- Rent
- Real estate taxes
- Property insurance
- Utilities (electricity, gas, water, trash pickup, landline telephone charges, etc.)
- Furnishings and appliances (purchase and repair)
- Structural repairs and remodeling
- Yard maintenance and improvements
- Maintenance items (pest control, etc.)
- Homeowners association dues

Key Point: In 2007, the Tax Court characterized internet expenses as utility expenses. This suggests that a housing allowance may be used to pay for internet expenses (e.g., internet access, cable television). Neither the IRS nor the Tax Court has addressed this issue directly, so be sure to check with a tax professional about the application of a housing allowance to these expenses.

Please note the following:

- A housing allowance must be designated in advance. Retroactive designations of housing allowances are not effective.
- The housing allowance designated by the church is not necessarily nontaxable. It is nontaxable (for income taxes) only to the extent that it is used to pay for housing expenses and, for ministers who own or rent their homes, does not exceed the fair rental value of their homes (furnished, plus utilities).
- A housing allowance can be amended during the year if a minister’s housing expenses are more than expected. However, an amendment is effective only prospectively. Ministers should notify their church if their actual housing expenses are significantly more than the housing allowance designated by their church. But note that it serves no purpose to designate a housing allowance greater than the fair rental value of a minister’s home (furnished, plus utilities).
- If the housing allowance designated by the church exceeds housing expenses or the fair rental value of a minister’s home, the excess housing allowance should be reported on line 1 of Form 1040. IRS Publication 517 states: “Include this amount in the total on Form 1040, line 1. On the dotted line next to line 1, enter ‘Excess allowance’ and the amount.”
- The housing allowance exclusion is an exclusion for federal
• The fair rental value of a church-owned home provided to a minister as compensation for ministerial services is not subject to federal income tax.

Example: A church designated $25,000 of Pastor D’s 2020 compensation as a housing allowance. Pastor D’s housing expenses for 2020 were utilities of $4,000, mortgage payments of $18,000, property taxes of $4,000, insurance payments of $1,000, repairs of $1,000, and furnishings of $1,000. The fair rental value of the home (including furnishings) is $19,000. Pastor D’s housing allowance is nontaxable in computing income taxes only to the extent that it is used to pay housing expenses and does not exceed the fair rental value of his home (furnished, plus utilities). Stated differently, the nontaxable portion of a housing allowance is the least of the following three amounts: (1) the housing allowance designated by the church; (2) actual housing expenses; or (3) the fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities). In this case, the lowest of these three amounts is the fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities) ($23,000), and so this represents the nontaxable portion of Pastor D’s housing allowance. Pastor D must report the difference between this amount and the housing allowance designated by his church ($2,000) as additional income on line 1 of Form 1040.

Example: Same facts as the previous example, except the church designated $12,000 of Pastor D’s salary as a housing allowance. The lowest of the three amounts in this case would be $12,000 (the church-designated housing allowance), and so this represents the nontaxable amount. Note that Pastor D’s actual housing expenses were more than the allowance, and so he was penalized because of the low allowance designated by his church.

Example: Pastor Y owns a home and incurred housing expenses of $12,000 in 2020. These expenses include mortgage principal and interest, property taxes, utilities, insurance, and repairs. The church designated (in advance) $12,000 of Pastor Y’s 2020 compensation as a housing allowance. Pastor Y is able to itemize expenses on Schedule A. He is able to claim itemized deductions on Schedule A for both his mortgage interest and his property taxes (up to $10,000), even though his taxable income was already reduced by these items because of their inclusion in the housing allowance. This is often referred to as the double deduction. In fact, it represents an exclusion and a deduction.

Example: In preparing his income tax return for 2020, Pastor H discovers that his church failed to designate a housing allowance for him for 2020. He asks his church to pass a resolution retroactively granting the allowance for 2020. Such a resolution is ineffective, and Pastor H will not be eligible for any housing allowance exclusion in 2020.

Key Point: Federal law makes it a crime to knowingly falsify any document with the intent to influence “the investigation or proper administration of any matter within the jurisdiction of any department or agency of the United States . . . or in relation to or contemplation of any such matter or case,” and this provision contains no exemption for churches or pastors. It is possible that a pastor’s backdating of a board resolution to qualify for a housing allowance for the entire year is fraud and violates this provision in the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, exposing the pastor to a fine or imprisonment. Even if the pastor’s action does not violate the Act, it may result in civil or criminal penalties for tax fraud under the tax code.

Tax Tip: Ministers should be sure that the designation of a housing or parsonage allowance for the next year is on the agenda of the church board or appropriate committee for one of its final meetings during the current year. The designation should be an official action, and it should be duly recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The IRS also recognizes designations included in employment contracts and budget line items — assuming in each case that the designation was duly adopted in advance by the church.

How much should a church designate as a housing allowance?

The IRS has stated that there are no limitations on how much of a minister’s compensation can be designated by his employing church as a housing allowance. However, as noted above, this means little, since the nontaxable portion of a church-designated housing allowance for ministers who own or rent their homes cannot exceed the lesser of (1) actual housing expenses or (2) the fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities).

Many churches base the housing allowance on their minister’s estimate of actual housing expenses for the new year. The church provides the minister with a form on which anticipated housing expenses for the new year are reported. For ministers who own their homes, the form asks for projected expenses in the following categories: down payment, mortgage payments, property taxes, property insurance, utilities, furnishings and appliances, repairs and improvements, maintenance, and miscellaneous. Many churches designate an allowance in excess of the anticipated expenses itemized by the minister. Basing the allowance solely on a minister’s anticipated expenses penalizes the minister if actual housing expenses turn out to be higher than expected. In other words, the allowance should take into account unexpected housing costs or inaccurate projections of expenses.

Key Point: The housing allowance is available only if three conditions are met: (1) The recipient is a Minister for Tax Purposes (as defined above); (2) the allowance is compensation for services performed in the exercise of ministry; and (3) the allowance is properly designated by the church.

Churches sometimes neglect to designate a housing allowance in advance of a new calendar year. For example, a church board may discover in March 2021 that it failed to designate a housing allowance for its pastor for 2021. It is not too late to act. The church should immediately designate a portion of its minister’s remaining compensation for 2021 as a housing allowance. This problem can be avoided by stipulating in each annual housing allowance designation that the allowance is for the current year and all future years unless otherwise provided. If such a resolution had been adopted in the December 2019 board meeting (e.g., “for 2020 and future years”), it would not matter that the church neglected to designate a minister's 2021 allowance until March 2021, since the previous designation would have carried over. Such safety net designations are not a substitute for annual housing allowances (they have never been addressed or endorsed by the IRS or Tax Court). Rather, they provide a basis for claiming a housing allowance if a church neglects to designate one.

Key Point: Churches cannot designate a housing allowance retroactively.

Key Point: The IRS has ruled that a retired minister is eligible for a housing allowance exclusion if the following conditions are satisfied: (1) A portion of the retired minister’s pension income is designated as a housing allowance by his church or the church pension board of a denominational pension fund; (2) the retired minister has severed his relationship with the local church and relies on the fund for a pension; and (3) the pensions paid to retired ministers “compensate them for past services to the local churches of the denomination or to the denomination.” Retired ministers who receive benefits from a denominational pension fund will be eligible in most cases to have some or all of their benefits designated in advance as a housing allowance. This is an attractive benefit for retired ministers that is not available with some other kinds of retirement plans. Retired ministers also can exclude from their gross income the rental value of a home (furnished, plus utilities) provided to them by their church as a part of their pay for past services. A minister’s surviving spouse cannot exclude a housing allowance or rental value of a parsonage unless the allowance or parsonage is for ministerial services performed.

SECA does not apply to the rental value of a parsonage or a housing allowance provided after a minister retires.

Key Point: Ministers who own their homes lose the largest component of their housing allowance exclusion when they pay off their home mortgage loan. Many ministers in this position have obtained home equity loans — or a conventional loan secured by a mortgage on their otherwise debt-free home — and have claimed their payments under these kinds of loans as a housing expense in computing their housing allowance exclusion. The Tax Court has ruled that this is permissible only if the loan proceeds were spent on housing-related expenses.

Section 403(b) Retirement Plans

Payments made by your church and your salary reduction contributions to a 403(b) plan are not reportable income for income tax or SECA purposes as long as the total amount credited to your retirement account does not exceed contribution limits under sections 415(c) and 402(g) of the tax code.

Contribution Limits

For 2020, total annual additions (employer contributions, salary reduction, and tax-paid contributions) could not exceed the lesser of 100% of your compensation (excluding a minister’s housing allowance) or $57,000. This rule is known as the section 415(c) limit. Excess contributions can result in income tax, additional taxes, and penalties. The effect of excess contributions depends on the type of excess contribution. The distributed excess amount may not be rolled over to another 403(b) plan or to an IRA.

New in 2021: The limit on annual additions is $58,000 for 2021.

Minister’s Housing Allowance and Contribution Limits

For 2020, the section 415(c) limit restricts 403(b) contributions to the lesser of 100% of compensation or $57,000. For 2021, this amount is $58,000. Does the term “compensation” include a minister’s housing allowance? This is an important question for ministers, since the answer will determine how much can be contributed to a 403(b) plan. If the housing allowance is treated as compensation, then ministers will be able to contribute larger amounts. The tax code specifies that the term “compensation”, for purposes of applying the section 415(c) limit to a 403(b)(3) plan, “means the participant’s includible compensation determined under section 403(b)(3).” Section 403(b)(3) defines “compensation” to include “the amount of compensation which is received from the employer . . . and which is includible in gross income.” Section 107 of the tax code specifies that a minister’s housing allowance (or the annual rental value of a parsonage) is not included in the minister’s gross income for income tax reporting purposes. Therefore, it would appear that the definition of “compensation”, for purposes of computing the section 415(c) limit, would not include the portion of a minister’s housing allowance that is excludible from gross income or the annual rental value of a parsonage.

For many years, the IRS website included the following question and answer addressing this issue:

Q. I am an employee minister in a local church. Each year, my church permits $25,000 as a yearly tax-free housing allowance. I would like to use my yearly housing allowance as compensation to determine my annual contribution limits (to a TSA) under section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. May I do so?

A. No. For purposes of determining the limits on contributions under section 415(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, amounts paid to an employee minister, as a tax-free housing allowance, may not be treated as compensation pursuant to the definitions of compensation under section 1.415-2(d) of the income tax regulations.

Key Point: Churches that include the housing allowance as compensation when calculating the amount of the church’s contribution to 403(b) plans must perform an additional calculation to ensure the total contributions to the plan do not exceed the maximum contribution allowed under section 415(c).

Taxation of Distributions from a 403(b) Plan

Amounts you contribute through employer discretionary contributions, employee salary reduction contributions, and the earnings attributable to these contributions generally cannot be withdrawn until an employee:

- Reaches age 59½
- Has a severance from employment

In some cases of financial hardship, you may withdraw your own salary reduction contributions (but not the earnings on them) prior to the occurrence of any of the above events. A 403(b) plan may make hardship distributions only if permitted by the plan.

Once amounts are distributed, they are generally taxable as ordinary income unless designated in advance as a minister’s housing allowance. In addition, if amounts are distributed prior to your reaching age 59½, you will be assessed an additional tax of 10% of the amount that is includible in income, unless one of the following exceptions applies:

- The distributions are part of a series of substantially equal periodic payments made over your life or the lives of your beneficiaries and after you separate from service.
- The distributions are made after you separate from service in or after the year in which you reach age 55.
- The distributions do not exceed the amount of unreimbursed medical expenses that you could deduct for the current year.
- The distributions are made after your death or after you become disabled.
- The distributions are made to an alternate payee pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order.

The additional tax is computed on Form 5329.

New in 2020: Distributions prior to age 59½ that do not satisfy one of the above exceptions are subject to an additional tax on early distributions of 10% multiplied by the amount of the distribution. However, the CARES Act (2020) provides that the 10% additional tax on early distributions does not apply to any coronavirus-related distribution (CRD) of up to $100,000 from a 403(b) plan and some other retirement plans. The CARES Act defines a CRD as any distribution from an eligible retirement plan made on or after January 1, 2020, and before December 31, 2020, to a qualified individual. Distributions generally are included in income ratably over a three-year period, starting with the year in which you receive your distribution. For example, if you receive a $9,000 CRD in 2020, you would report $3,000 in income on your federal income tax return for each of 2020, 2021, and 2022. However, you have the option of including the entire distribution in your income for the year of the distribution.
New in 2020: The SECURE Act (2020) waives the required minimum distribution (RMD) rules for certain defined contribution plans (including 403(b) plans) and IRAs for calendar year 2020. This provision provides relief to individuals who would otherwise be required to withdraw funds from such retirement accounts during the economic slowdown due to COVID-19.

New in 2020: The SECURE Act changes the age on which the required beginning date for RMDs is based, from the calendar year in which the employee attains 70½ years to the calendar year in which the employee attains 72 years. However, prior law continues to apply to employees and IRA owners who attain age 70½ prior to January 1, 2020. This provision is effective for distributions required to be made after December 31, 2019, for employees who attain age 70½ after December 31, 2019. In all other respects, prior law treatment of RMDs is not affected.

Salary Reduction Contributions (Section 402(g))

In addition to the section 415(c) limit, there is an annual limit on elective deferral contributions. The limit applies to the total of all elective deferrals contributed (even if contributed through different employers) for the year on your behalf to a variety of retirement plans, including 403(b) plans. Generally, you cannot defer more than an allowable amount each year for all plans covering you. For 2020, the allowable limit was $19,500. If you defer more than the allowable amount for a tax year, you must include the excess in your taxable income for that year.

New in 2021: The dollar limit on annual elective deferrals remains at $19,500.

Key Point: Church employees can make a special election that allows their employer to contribute up to $10,000 for the year, even if this is more than 100% of your compensation. The total contributions over your lifetime under this election cannot be more than $40,000.

The limit on elective deferrals increases for individuals who have attained age 50 by the end of the year. The additional amount that may be made is the lesser of (1) the applicable dollar amount or (2) the participant’s compensation for the year reduced by any other elective deferrals of the participant for the year. The applicable dollar amount is $6,500 for 2020 and 2021. Catch-up contributions are not subject to any other contribution limits and are not taken into account in applying other contribution limits.

Qualified Scholarships

Amounts received as a qualified scholarship by a candidate for a degree may be excluded from gross income. A qualified scholarship is any grant amount that, in accordance with the conditions of the grant, is used for tuition and course-related expenses. Qualified tuition and related expenses are those used for (1) tuition and fees required for the enrollment or attendance at an educational institution or (2) fees, books, supplies, and equipment required for courses of instruction at the educational institution.

The scholarship need not specify that it is to be used only for qualified tuition and related expenses. All that is required is that the recipient uses the scholarship for such expenses and that the scholarship does not specify that it is to be used for non-qualified expenses (such as room and board).

In addition to these requirements, the scholarship must meet additional requirements if the recipient is an employee or a family member of an employee. Generally, the scholarship must be non-compensatory in nature and selected using non-employment-related criteria, and an independent committee must make the selection of the recipient. Additional requirements may also apply. The church should seek the advice of a CPA, EA, or tax attorney to determine the proper treatment of scholarships to employees and their children.

Key Point: Amounts paid by a church for the education of a pastor or other church employee cannot be treated as a nontaxable scholarship if paid as compensation for services.

Any amount received in excess of the qualified tuition and related expenses, such as amounts received for room and board, is not eligible for this exclusion.

Any amount received that represents payment for teaching, research, or other services required as a condition for receiving a qualified scholarship cannot be excluded from gross income. In addition, amounts paid by a church for the education of a pastor or other church employee cannot be treated as a nontaxable scholarship if paid as compensation for services.

Example: First Baptist Church establishes a scholarship fund for seminary students. Robert is a church member who is pursuing a master’s degree at a seminary. The church votes to award him a scholarship of $2,500 for 2021. So long as Robert uses the scholarship award for tuition or other course-related expenses, he need not report it as income on his federal tax return. The better practice would be for the church to stipulate that the scholarship is to be used for tuition or other... course-related expenses (for example, fees, books, or supplies) or for the church to pay the expenses directly to the educational institution. This will ensure that the scholarship does not inadvertently become taxable income because its specific use was not designated and the recipient used it for non-qualified expenses. As long as amounts are paid through a qualified scholarship plan, the church is not required to report the scholarship on Form 1099-MISC or 1099-NEC to the recipient.

Key Point: A church may not establish a scholarship plan that is directed solely at a small group of potential candidates. For example, a church cannot set up a scholarship plan for its ministers or the children of its ministers. A smaller church may not even set up a plan solely for its members. In order to navigate these essential rules, qualified counsel should be sought in developing any scholarship plan for the church.

Sale or Exchange of Your Principal Residence

A taxpayer who is an individual may exclude up to $250,000 ($500,000 if MFJ) of gain realized on the sale or exchange of a principal residence. To be eligible for the exclusion, the taxpayer must have owned and used the residence as a principal residence for at least two of the five years ending on the date of the sale or exchange.

A taxpayer who fails to meet these requirements by reason of a change of place of employment, health, or (to the extent provided under regulations) unforeseen circumstances is able to exclude an amount equal to the fraction of the $250,000 ($500,000 if MFJ) that is equal to the fraction of the two years that the ownership and use requirements are met. The exclusion under this provision may not be claimed for more than one sale or exchange during any two-year period unless the special provisions for unforeseen circumstances apply.

Lines 2a and 2b. Interest income: attach Schedule B if more than $1,500

Complete this line if you had interest income. Tax-exempt interest income is reported on line 2a with taxable interest income reported on line 2b. If you had taxable dividend and interest income of more than $1,500, complete Schedule B.

Lines 3a and 3b. Dividend income: attach Schedule B if more than $1,500

Complete this line only if you had dividend income. Qualified dividend income is reported on line 3a with all dividend income reported on line 3b. If you had dividend and interest income of more than $1,500, complete Schedule B.

Lines 4a and 4b. IRA distributions

You should receive a Form 1099-R showing the total amount of your pension and annuity payments before income tax or other deductions were withheld. This amount should be shown in Box 1 of Form 1099-R.

Lines 5a and 5b. Pensions and annuities

Pension and annuity payments include distributions from 401(k) and 403(b) plans. Do not include the following payments on lines 5a and 5b. Instead report them on line 1:

- Disability pensions received before you reach the minimum retirement age set by your employer.
- Corrective distributions (including any earnings) of excess salary deferrals or excess contributions to retirement plans. The plan must advise you of the year(s) the distributions are includible in income.

Many denominational pension funds annually designate 100% of pension and disability benefits paid to retired ministers as a housing allowance. In such cases, Form 1099-R may show that the taxable amount of the pension income is “not determined” by checking the box on line 2b of Form 1099-R. If you are a retired or disabled minister, you may exclude all or a portion of your pension or disability income from your gross income reported on line 5 of Form 1040 if (1) you can document that the monies were actually spent on housing-related expenses during the tax year; (2) the amount excluded does not exceed the fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities); and (3) the applicable pension board designated the retirement payments as housing allowance.

IRS Publication 517 states: “If you are a retired minister, you can exclude from your gross income the rental value of a home (plus utilities) furnished to you by your church as a part of your pay for past services, or the part of your pension that was designated as a rental allowance. However, a minister’s surviving spouse cannot exclude the rental value unless the rental value is for ministerial services he or she performs or performed.”

Key Point: Surviving spouses of deceased ministers cannot exclude any portion of the benefits received from their deceased spouse’s 403(b) account as a housing allowance.

Lines 6a and 6b. Social Security benefits

Key Point: Individuals who receive Social Security retirement, disability, or survivor benefits may have to pay taxes on a portion of their benefits.

Some taxpayers have to pay federal income taxes on their Social Security benefits. This usually happens only if you have other substantial income in addition to your benefits (such as wages, self-employment, interest, dividends, and other taxable income that must be reported on your tax return).

You generally will pay tax on only 50% or 85% of your Social Security benefit, depending on the amount of your other income.

If you:

- File a federal tax return as an individual or married filing separately and your combined income is
  - Between $25,000 and $34,000, you may have to pay income tax on up to 50% of your benefits.
  - More than $34,000, up to 85% of your benefits may be taxable.
- File a joint return and you and your spouse have a combined income that is
  - Between $32,000 and $44,000, you may have to pay income tax on up to 50% of your benefits.
  - More than $44,000, up to 85% of your benefits may be taxable.

Your combined income is your AGI plus nontaxable interest and half of your Social Security benefits.

Each January, you will receive a Form SSA-1099 Social Security Benefit Statement showing the amount of benefits you received in the previous year. You can use this Benefit Statement when you complete your federal income tax return to find out if your benefits are subject to tax.

For additional information on the taxability of Social Security benefits, see IRS Publication 915 Social Security and Equivalent Railroad Retirement Benefits. Publication 915 is available at IRS.gov.

Line 7. Capital gain (or loss)

Report on line 7 capital gains or losses (attach Schedule D) from the sale of capital assets. These include stocks, bonds, and property. Gain or loss is reported on Schedule D. You also may have to file Form 8949 (see the instructions to both forms for details).

Key Point: Schedule D is for reporting capital gains and losses from investments. Schedule 1 line 4 ("other gains or losses") is for reporting sales of capital assets, such as equipment that is used in a business.

Line 8. Other income

Income not reported on lines 1 through 7 is reported on Schedule 1, with the total reported on Form 1040 line 8. The most important of these for ministers include the following:

1. Line 3 (Schedule 1). Business income

   Report self-employment earnings (from Schedule C). Self-employment earnings include:
   - Compensation reported to you on a Form 1099-NEC
   - Fees received directly from church members for performing personal services (such as weddings and funerals)
   - Honoraria you received for guest speaking in other churches

   If you received income from any of these kinds of activities, compute your net earnings on Schedule C and transfer this amount to line 3 of Schedule 1.

2. Line 8 (Schedule 1). “Other income”

   “Other income” is reported on line 8 of Schedule 1 and carried over to line 8 (Form 1040). Other income includes the following items:
   - A canceled debt or a debt paid for you by another person (unless the person who canceled or paid your debt intended it to be a gift)
   - The fair market value of a free tour you receive from a travel agency for organizing a group of tourists (in some cases this may be reported on Schedule C)
   - Most prizes and awards
   - Some taxable distributions from a Health Savings Account (HSA) or Archer Medical Savings Account (MSA) (see IRS Publication 969)
   - Jury duty pay
   - Recapture of a charitable contribution deduction if the charitable organization disposes of the donated property within three years of the contribution
   - Taxable benefits provided by the church but not included on Form W-2 or Form W-2c. (Also remember to include these benefits on Schedule SE for the calculation of SECA.)

Line 9. Total income

Report total income on this line. This is the sum of the amounts reported on lines 1–8 of Form 1040, plus the additional categories of income reported on lines 1–9 of Schedule 1.

Step 5: Adjustments to Income

Line 10b. Charitable deduction

You can take up to a $300 deduction for cash contributions made to churches, charities, or other qualified organizations in 2020 if you take the standard deduction and do not itemize on Schedule A.

You may deduct certain adjustments from total income (line 9) to compute your AGI. Report the adjustments on lines 10 through 22 of Schedule 1. The total amount is subtracted from line 9 (Form 1040) to compute AGI that is reported on line 11.

The two most relevant adjustments for ministers are the deduction for one-half of SECA and payments to an IRA. Both are summarized below.

1. Line 14 (Schedule 1). One-half of SECA

   - Key Point: Every minister who pays SECA on ministerial income qualifies for this deduction. Some are not claiming it.

   All ministers are self-employed for Social Security with respect to their ministerial income. They can deduct half of their actual SECA as an adjustment on line 14 (Schedule 1) of Form 1040, whether they are able to itemize deductions on Schedule A or not.

2. Line 19 (Schedule 1). Payments to an Individual Retirement Account (IRA)

   An IRA is a personal savings plan that allows you to set aside money for retirement while offering you tax advantages. You can set up different kinds of IRAs with a variety of organizations, such as a bank or other financial institution, a mutual fund, or a life insurance company.

The original IRA is referred to as a Traditional IRA. A Traditional IRA is any IRA that is not a Roth IRA or a SIMPLE IRA. You may be able to deduct some or all of your contributions to a Traditional IRA. You may also be eligible for a tax credit equal to a percentage of your contribution. Amounts in your Traditional IRA, including earnings, generally are not taxed until distributed to you. IRAs cannot be owned jointly. However, any amounts remaining in your IRA upon your death can be paid to your beneficiary or beneficiaries.

Prior to 2020, if you were 70½ or older, you could not make a regular contribution to a Traditional IRA. However, you could contribute to a Roth IRA and make rollover contributions to a Roth or Traditional IRA regardless of your age.

- New in 2020: For 2020 and later, there is no age limit on making regular contributions to Traditional or Roth IRAs.

To contribute to a Traditional IRA, you, or your spouse if you file a joint return, must have taxable compensation, such as wages, salaries, commissions, tips, bonuses, or net income from self-employment. Compensation does not include earnings and profits from property, such as rental income, interest and dividend income, or any amount received as pension or annuity income, or as deferred compensation.

For 2020, if you file a joint return and your taxable compensation is less than that of your spouse, the most that can be contributed for the year to your IRA is the smaller of the following two amounts: (1) $6,000 ($7,000 if you are age 50 or older) or (2) the total compensation includible in the gross income of both you and your spouse for the year, reduced by your spouse's IRA contribution for the year to a Traditional IRA and any contributions for the year to a Roth IRA on behalf of your spouse. (The contribution limits remain unchanged for 2021.)

All IRA contributions must be made by the due date of your tax return, not including extensions. This means that your 2020 IRA contribution must be made by April 15, 2021, even if you obtain an extension for filing this return.

- Example: A church has a senior pastor who is 52 years old and a youth pastor who is 30 years old. The church does not participate in a retirement program for its staff. In 2021, the senior pastor can contribute $7,000 to an IRA (maximum annual contribution of $6,000 plus a catch-up contribution of $1,000), and the youth pastor can contribute $6,000.

Your allowable deduction may be reduced or eliminated, depending on your filing status, the amount of your income, and if you or your spouse are covered by an employer-provided retirement plan. The deduction begins to decrease (phase out) when your income rises above a certain amount and is eliminated altogether when it reaches a higher amount. The amounts vary depending on your filing status. For 2020, if you were covered by an employer-provided retirement plan, then the deduction for contributions to your IRA are completely phased out when AGI reaches $124,000 (MFJ) or $75,000 (single). (For 2021, the limits are $125,000 (MFJ) and $76,000 (single).)

If your spouse was covered by an employer retirement plan at any time during 2020 and you made contributions to your IRA, your allowable IRA deduction is completely phased out when AGI reaches $206,000 (MFJ). (For 2021, the limit is $208,000 (MFJ).) (See IRS Publication 590-A. The Form W-2 you receive from your church or other employer has a box used to show whether you were covered by a retirement plan during the year. The “Retirement Plan” box should have a mark in it if you were covered. Employer retirement plans include 403(b) TSAs.

Figure your deduction using the worksheets in the instructions to Form 1040 or in Publication 590-A.

Individuals who cannot claim a deduction for an IRA... contribution still can make non-deductible IRA contributions, subject to the lesser of $6,000 (for 2020 and 2021) or earned income limits. Earnings on these amounts continue to accumulate on a tax-deferred basis. When distributions are made from the IRA, special rules apply in figuring the tax on the distributions when both deductible and non-deductible contributions were made to the IRA. Form 8606 is used to designate a contribution as non-deductible and must be filed or the full amount of future withdrawals may be taxed. Withdrawals before age 59½ are subject to a 10% penalty tax that also applies to deductible IRA contributions.

Generally, the amounts an individual withdraws from an IRA or retirement plan before reaching age 59½ are called early or premature distributions. Individuals must pay an additional 10% early withdrawal tax unless an exception applies. However, the CARES Act (2020) temporarily waives the 10% early withdrawal penalty for CRDs made between January 1 and December 31, 2020.

Distributions from a Traditional IRA are fully or partially taxable in the year of distribution. Use Form 8606 to figure the taxable portion of withdrawals. If you made only deductible contributions, distributions are fully taxable.

A Roth IRA differs from a Traditional IRA in several respects. A Roth IRA does not permit a deduction at the time of contribution. Regardless of your age, you may be able to establish and make non-deductible contributions to a Roth IRA. However, you may be limited in the amount of non-deductible contributions you may make to your Roth IRA due to your AGI. For those filing as MFJ, no contribution may be made to a Roth IRA in 2020 if your AGI, as modified, is $206,000 or above. For those filing as single, no contribution may be made to a Roth IRA if your AGI, as modified, is $139,000 or more. (For 2021, the Roth IRA contribution is phased out totally when AGI is $208,000 for taxpayers MFJ and $140,000 for singles and head of household filers.)

You do not report Roth contributions on your tax return. To be a Roth IRA, the account or annuity must be designated as a Roth IRA when it is set up. Like a Traditional IRA, a Roth IRA can be set up, but there are limitations on the amount that can be contributed and the time of year that contributions can be made. You do not include in your gross income qualified distributions or distributions that are a return of your regular contributions from your Roth IRA. Refer to Publication 590-A for additional information on Roth IRAs.

For information on conversions from a Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA, refer to Publication 590-A.

In the past, if you were 70½ or older, you could not make a regular contribution to a Traditional IRA. However, you could still contribute to a Roth IRA and make rollover contributions to a Roth or Traditional IRA regardless of your age subject to the above described income limitations. For 2020 and later, there is no age limit on making regular contributions to Traditional or Roth IRAs.

Charitable contributions. An IRA owner age 70½ or over can directly transfer, tax-free, up to $100,000 per year to an eligible charity. Distributions from employer-sponsored retirement plans, including SIMPLE IRA plans and simplified employee pension (SEP) plans, are not eligible. To qualify, the funds must be transferred directly by the IRA custodian to the eligible charity. Distributed amounts may be excluded from the IRA owner’s income, resulting in lower taxable income for the IRA owner. However, if the IRA owner excludes the distribution from income, no deduction, such as a charitable contribution deduction on Schedule A, may be taken for the distributed amount.

To report a qualified charitable distribution (QCD) on your Form 1040 tax return, you generally report the full amount of the charitable distribution on the line for IRA distributions (line 4a, Form 1040). On the line for the taxable amount, enter zero if the full amount was a QCD. Enter “QCD” next to this line. See the Form 1040 instructions for additional information.

Not all charities are eligible. For example, donor-advised funds and supporting organizations are not eligible recipients.

Amounts transferred to a charity from an IRA are counted in determining whether the owner has met the IRA’s RMD.

Key Point: The QCD does need a qualifying receipt from the recipient charity with the mandated “no goods or services” statement. A church may include the gift on the IRA owner’s regular giving statement in an attempt to fulfill this requirement. Care should be taken not to take a deduction for the QCD if it is included on the regular giving statement. Best practice is for the recipient charity or church to issue a separate statement for the gift.

Line 11. Adjusted gross income

AGI is gross income minus adjustments to income. Gross income includes your wages, dividends, capital gains, business income, retirement distributions, as well as other income. Adjustments to income include such items as educator expenses, student loan interest, alimony payments, or contributions to a retirement account. Your AGI will never be more than your gross total income on your return and in some cases may be lower. AGI is an important number since it is used to determine the amount of various deductions and credits.
Step 6: Tax Computation

Line 12. Itemized deduction or standard deduction

Key Point: Itemize your deductions on Schedule A only if they exceed the standard deduction for your filing status.

On line 12, you enter either your itemized deductions from Schedule A or a standard deduction amount. Itemized deductions are discussed under Schedule A in this guide. For 2020, the standard deduction amounts are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Filing Status</th>
<th>Standard Deduction Amount (2020)</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Single</td>
<td>$12,400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Married filing jointly or qualifying widower</td>
<td>$24,800</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Married filing separately</td>
<td>$12,400</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Head of household</td>
<td>$18,650</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Line 13. Qualified business income deduction

Ministers who have income from business activities (conducted other than in their capacity as an employee of the church) and report their income on Schedule C may be entitled to a federal tax deduction of up to 20% of their qualified business income (QBI). This deduction is also referred to as the IRC Section 199A deduction. Section 199A limits the deduction to the lesser of (1) 20% of the QBI less one-half of the SECA directly related to the QBI, the self-employed health insurance deduction, and the self-employed qualified plan contribution deduction related to the qualified business or (2) 20% of taxable income before the QBI deduction less net capital gains.

Upon publication of this guide, it has been interpreted that the qualified business trade or business activities of a self-employed minister may be considered a “specified service trade or business”. Thus, there may be an exception to the deductibility of the QBI deduction. If a minister’s income before this deduction (reported on line 9 of Form 1040) exceeds $163,300 ($326,600 MFJ) for 2020, then the deduction may be limited; if AGI exceeds $213,300 ($426,600 MFJ) for 2020, then the deduction is unavailable. Attach either Form 8995 or 8995-A and possibly Schedules A, B, and/or C (Form 8995-A), as needed.

Line 16. Compute tax

Most ministers can use the tax tables to determine their income taxes. Some higher-income ministers must use the tax rate schedules (a spouse’s income is considered in deciding whether or not to use the tax rate schedules).

Step 7: Credits

A credit is a direct dollar-for-dollar reduction in your tax liability. It is much more valuable than deductions and exclusions, which merely reduce taxable income. On your 2020 Form 1040, non-refundable credits (i.e., credits that do not generate a tax refund if the credit amount exceeds taxable income) are reported on lines 1–7 of Schedule 3, and the total amount for all credits is carried over to line 20 of Form 1040.

The more common and important credits for ministers are the child tax credit, the credit for child and dependent care expenses, and the retirement savings credit. Each of these is addressed below.

Lines 19 and 28. Child tax credit and additional child tax credit

The TCJA temporarily increases the child tax credit to $2,000 per qualifying child. The credit is further modified to temporarily provide for a $500 non-refundable credit for qualifying dependents other than qualifying children (such as aging parents). The provision generally retains the present-law definition of “dependent”.

If the child tax credit cannot be utilized against current taxes, a portion of the credit is refundable. This is referred to as the additional child tax credit. The maximum amount refundable may not exceed $1,400 per qualifying child. In order to receive the child tax credit (i.e., both the refundable and non-refundable portion), a taxpayer must include an SSN for each qualifying child for whom the credit is claimed on the tax return. For these purposes, an SSN must be issued before the due date for the filing of the return for the taxable year. This requirement does not apply to a non-child dependent for whom the $500 non-refundable credit is claimed.

As a result, a qualifying child is an individual who has not attained age 17 during the taxable year. The credit is subject to the AGI phaseout thresholds. The credit begins to phase out for taxpayers with AGI in excess of $400,000 (in the case of married taxpayers filing a joint return) and $200,000 (for all other taxpayers). These phaseout thresholds are not indexed for inflation.

The amount of the refundable portion of the child tax credit (“additional child tax credit”) is based on a calculation of “earned income” that does not include housing allowance. Therefore, it is possible that having a portion of income designated as housing allowance may decrease the amount of the additional child tax credit (the refundable portion). Ministers should prepare tax estimates using a variety of scenarios to determine their best tax advantage. This nuance is especially pertinent to ministers who have several children and a potential to receive a substantial additional child tax credit.
These provisions are set to expire for taxable years beginning after December 31, 2025, unless extended by Congress.

Line 20 (Form 1040) Schedule 3 line 2. Credit for child and dependent care expenses: attach Form 2441

Complete this line if you are eligible for a credit for child or dependent care expenses. See the instructions to Form 1040, Schedule 3 line 2 for details and conditions or the instructions for Form 2441 Child and Dependent Care Expenses.

See IRS Publication 972 for additional information.

Line 20 (Form 1040) Schedule 3 line 4. Retirement Savings Contributions Credit (Saver’s Credit)

If you make eligible contributions to certain eligible retirement plans or to an IRA, you may be able to take a tax credit. The amount of the Saver’s Credit you can get is generally based on the contributions you make and your credit rate. Refer to Publication 590-A or the instructions for Form 8880 for more information. If you are eligible for the credit, your credit rate can be as low as 10% or as high as 50%, depending on your AGI. The lower your income, the higher the credit rate; your credit rate also depends on your filing status. These two factors will determine the maximum credit you may be allowed to take. You are not eligible for the credit if your AGI exceeds a certain amount.

The credit is available with respect to elective deferrals to a 401(k) plan, a 403(b) annuity, a SIMPLE, or a SEP; contributions to a Traditional or Roth IRA; and voluntary after-tax employee contributions to a 403(b) annuity or qualified retirement plan. The amount of the credit for 2020 is described in the following table:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Adjusted Gross Income</th>

For married couples filing jointly, each spouse is eligible for the credit.

For more information about this credit, see IRS Form 8880 and Publication 590-A.

Step 8: Other Taxes

Line 23 (Form 1040) Schedule 2 line 10. Other taxes

On Form 1040 for 2020, “other taxes” are derived from line 10 of Schedule 2, and the total of all taxes is carried over to line 23 of Form 1040. These include SECA, which ministers must pay on ministerial income (unless exempt).

Step 9: Payments

On the 2020 Form 1040, amounts representing federal income tax withholding are reported on line 25, and estimated tax payments are reported on line 26, as well as tax overpayments from the prior year applied to current-year taxes. Other tax payments are reported on Schedule 3 and reported on line 31 of Form 1040. The two most important categories of tax payments are withheld taxes and estimated tax payments, as noted below.

Line 25. Federal income tax withheld

Federal income tax may be withheld from several sources of income. For the first time, Form 1040 separately reports withholding from these different potential sources.

Line 25a — Federal income tax withheld from Forms W-2

Ministers’ wages based on the performance of ministerial services are exempt from federal income tax withholding. As a result, only those ministers who have entered into a voluntary withholding arrangement with their church will have income taxes withheld. The church should report the amount of voluntarily withheld taxes on the minister’s Form W-2.

Key Point: Ministers who enter into voluntary withholding arrangements will have federal and state income taxes withheld from their wages. However, a church does not withhold the employee’s share of FICA, since ministers are self-employed for Social Security with respect to ministerial compensation. Ministers can request (on Form W-4 or through other written instructions) that their church withhold an additional amount of income taxes to cover their expected SECA liability. These additional withholdings must be treated as income taxes withheld (on Forms W-2 and 941) rather than the employee’s share of FICA. They constitute a payment that can be applied to both income taxes and SECA. Ministers still must complete Schedule SE to report their SECA liability.

Line 25b — Federal income tax withheld from Forms 1099
Federal income tax may be withheld from pension payments or distributions reported on Form 1099-R or from Social Security payments reported on Form SSA-1099 or from other income reported on Form 1099-NEC. Other potential sources may be from interest and dividends reported on Form 1099-B.

Line 25c — Federal income tax withheld from other forms

Income tax withheld from gambling winnings reported on Form W-G or Additional Medicare Tax as calculated on Form 8959 is included on this line.

Line 26. Estimated tax payments

Compensation paid to ministers for ministerial duties is not subject to mandatory tax withholding. As a result, ministers must prepay their income tax and SECA by using the quarterly estimated tax procedure, unless they have entered into a voluntary withholding agreement with their employing church. The estimated tax procedure is summarized in Part 2 of this guide in the section “How do ministers pay their taxes?”

The total amount of estimated tax payments made to the IRS for the 2020 tax year is reported as a payment of taxes on line 26 of Form 1040. Additionally, any amount of an overpayment from 2019 applied to the 2020 estimated tax payment is included on this line.

Line 27. Earned income credit (EIC)

The EIC reduces tax you owe and may give you a refund even if you do not owe any tax. A number of technical requirements must be met in order to qualify for this credit. Unfortunately, many taxpayers who qualify for the EIC do not claim it because it is so difficult to compute. In most cases, the amount of your EIC depends on (1) whether you have no qualifying child, one qualifying child, two qualifying children, or three or more qualifying children and (2) the amount of your earned income and modified AGI.

You may be able to claim the EIC for 2020 if you have a non-retirement investment income of $3,650 or less and (1) you do not have a qualifying child, you’re at least age 25, and you earned less than $15,820 ($21,710 if MFJ); (2) a qualifying child lived with you and you earned less than $41,756 ($47,646 if MFJ); (3) two qualifying children lived with you and you earned less than $47,440 ($53,330 if MFJ); or (4) three or more qualifying children lived with you and you earned less than $50,954 ($56,844 if MFJ). The maximum EIC for 2020 is (1) $538 with no qualifying child; (2) $3,584 with one qualifying child; (3) $5,920 with two qualifying children; and (4) $6,660 with three or more qualifying children.

You can compute the credit yourself or the IRS will compute it for you. To figure the amount of your EIC, you must use the EIC Worksheet and EIC Table in the instructions for Form 1040 line 27. Ministers may want to consider having the IRS compute the credit for them, especially due to confusion about how the housing allowance affects the credit.

The credit is reported on line 27 of Form 1040.

IRS Publication 596 is a 40-page publication that explains the EIC. The 2019 edition (the most recent available at the time of publication of this text) states, in general: “The rental value of a home or a housing allowance provided to a minister as part of the minister’s pay generally isn’t subject to income tax but is included in net earnings from self-employment. For that reason, it is included in earned income for the EIC” except for ministers who have opted out of SECA by filing a timely Form 4361 exemption application with the IRS.

Excerpts from Publication 596 confirm that ministers who are employees for income tax reporting purposes and who have not exempted themselves from SECA by filing a timely Form 4361 with the IRS include their housing allowance or the fair rental value of a parsonage in computing earned income for purposes of the EIC.

But what about ministers who have exempted themselves from SECA by filing a timely Form 4361 with the IRS? Do they include a housing allowance or the rental value of a parsonage in computing their earned income for purposes of the EIC? As noted above, Publication 596 explicitly states, with regard to ministers who have filed Form 4361, that “a non-taxable housing allowance or the non-taxable rental value of a home is not earned income.”

With respect to ministers who have filed a timely Form 4361, Publication 596 states:

Whether or not you have an approved Form 4361, amounts you received for performing ministerial duties as an employee count as earned income. This includes wages, salaries, tips, and other taxable employee compensation. [But] if you have an approved Form 4361, a non-taxable housing allowance or the non-taxable rental value of a home isn’t earned income. Also, amounts you received for performing ministerial duties, but not as an employee, don’t count as earned income. Examples include fees for performing marriages and honoraria for delivering speeches.

Ministers who are affected by this issue should consult their tax professional for help.

Key Point: The definition of “earned income” for the EIC is not the same as the definition of “earned income” for the additional child tax credit discussed earlier in this publication.
Key Point: Once again, tax benefits may be affected by the housing allowance. Ministers should consider these various provisions and determine if the housing allowance is beneficial for them in light of how it affects the EIC and the additional child tax credit.

Step 10: Refund or Amount You Owe

After totaling your payments on Form 1040 line 33, you can calculate whether you owe the government or a refund is due you. If you owe a tax, be certain to enclose with your return a check in the amount you owe, payable to the United States Treasury, or make the payment through your EFTPS account. There are also payment methods available directly through the IRS at IRS.gov/Payments, or practitioners can assist you in making a payment as a part of electronically filing your tax return. Do not attach the check to your return, but include it with a Form 1040-V. If you file your return electronically, the payment may be sent in separately using Form 1040-V. Include your daytime phone number and your SSN and write “Form 1040 for 2020” on the check. If you owe taxes, you also may have to pay an underpayment penalty (refer to line 38 of Form 1040). If you are paying taxes after April 15, 2021, you may also owe late payment penalties.

If you have overpaid your taxes, you have two options: (1) request a full refund or (2) apply the overpayment to your 2021 estimated tax (refer to line 36 of Form 1040).

Step 11: Sign Here

You must sign and date the return at the bottom of page 2. If you are filing a joint return, your spouse must also sign the return. In the “your occupation” space, enter your occupation — minister.

If you or your spouse has been the victim of identity theft, the IRS will issue you an Identity Protection PIN that must also be entered in this section of the return.

OTHER FORMS AND SCHEDULES

Schedule A

Key Point: If your itemized deductions exceed your standard deduction, you should report your itemized deductions on Schedule A. This section will summarize the itemized deductions.

Step 1: Medical and Dental Expenses (lines 1–4)

You may deduct certain medical and dental expenses (for yourself, your spouse, and your dependents) if you itemize your deductions on Schedule A, but only to the extent that your expenses exceed 7.5% of your AGI. You must reduce your medical expenses by the amounts of any reimbursements you receive for those expenses before applying the 75% test. Reimbursements include amounts you receive from insurance or other sources for your medical expenses (including Medicare). It does not matter if the reimbursement is paid to the patient, the doctor, or the hospital.

The following items ARE deductible as medical expenses:

- Fees for medical services
- Fees for hospital services
- Lodging at a hospital during medical treatment (subject to some limits)
- Medical and hospital insurance premiums that you pay (do not include amounts paid to health sharing arrangements)
- Special equipment
- Medicare Part A premiums you pay if you are exempt from Social Security and voluntarily elect to pay Medicare Part A premiums
- Medicare Part B premiums you pay
- Medicare Part D premiums you pay
- Medicare Supplement Insurance premiums you pay (or that are deducted from your pension)
- Long-term care insurance premiums, subject to certain limitations on the amount that may be deducted
- Special items (false teeth, artificial limbs, eyeglasses, hearing aids, crutches, etc.)
- Transportation for necessary medical care. For 2020, the standard mileage rate for medical travel was 17 cents per mile (it has decreased to 16 cents for 2021)
- Medicines and drugs requiring a prescription, and insulin
- The portion of a life-care fee or founder’s fee paid either monthly or in a lump sum under an agreement with a retirement home that is allocable to medical care
- Wages of an attendant who provides medical care
- The cost of home improvements if the main reason is for medical care
- Program to stop smoking
- Exercise expenses (including the cost of equipment to use in the home) if required to treat an illness (including obesity) diagnosed by a physician, the purpose of the expense is to treat a disease rather than to promote general health, and the taxpayer would not have paid the expense but for this purpose

The following items are NOT deductible as medical expenses:

- The cost of diet food
- Funeral services
- Health club dues (except as noted above)
- Household help
- Life insurance
- Maternity clothes
- Non-prescription medicines and drugs
- Nursing care for a healthy baby
- Toothpaste, cosmetics, toiletries
- Trip for general improvement of health
- Most cosmetic surgery

Step 2: Taxes You Paid (lines 5–7)

In the past, individuals were permitted a deduction for certain taxes paid or accrued, whether or not incurred in a taxpayer’s trade or business. These taxes were:

- State and local real property taxes
- State and local personal property taxes
- State and local income taxes

At the election of the taxpayer, an itemized deduction may be taken for state and local general sales taxes in lieu of the itemized deduction for state and local income taxes. This provision was added to address the unequal treatment of taxpayers in the seven states that do not have an income tax. Taxpayers in these states cannot take advantage of the itemized deduction for state income taxes. Allowing them to deduct sales taxes helps offset this disadvantage.

Taxpayers may claim an itemized deduction of up to $10,000 ($5,000 for married taxpayer filing a separate return) for the aggregate of:

- State and local property taxes
- State and local income taxes (or sales taxes in lieu of income taxes) paid or accrued in the taxable year

The $10,000 limitation applies until 2025.

Some states attempted to assist taxpayers in avoiding the above limitations by creating state-run charities that would grant tax credits in exchange for charitable contributions that would qualify for a tax deduction. The IRS issued regulations stating that to the extent a tax credit was granted, the charitable contribution would not be deductible.

Step 3: Interest You Paid (lines 8–10)

As a general matter, personal interest is not deductible. Qualified residence interest is not treated as personal interest and is allowed as an itemized deduction, subject to limitations. Qualified residence interest means interest paid or accrued during the taxable year on either acquisition indebtedness or home equity indebtedness. A qualified residence means the taxpayer’s principal residence and one other residence of the taxpayer selected to be a qualified residence. A qualified residence can be a house, condominium, cooperative, mobile home, house trailer, or boat.

Acquisition indebtedness is indebtedness that is incurred in acquiring, constructing, or substantially improving a qualified residence of the taxpayer and that secures the residence. Note the following two rules:

1. Limit on loans taken out on or before December 15, 2017

For qualifying debt taken out on or before December 15, 2017, you can deduct home mortgage interest on up to only $1 million ($500,000 if you are married filing separately) of that debt. The only exception is for loans taken out on or before October 13, 1987 (see IRS Publication 936 for more information about loans taken out on or before October 13, 1987).

See Publication 936 to figure your deduction if you have loans taken out on or before December 15, 2017, that exceed $1 million ($500,000 if you are married filing separately).

2. Limit on loans taken out after December 15, 2017

For qualifying debt taken out after December 15, 2017, you can deduct home mortgage interest on up to only $750,000 ($375,000 if you are married filing separately) of that debt. If you also have qualifying debt subject to the $1 million limitation discussed above, the $750,000 limit for debt taken out after December 15, 2017, is reduced by the amount of your qualifying debt subject to the $1 million limit. An exception exists for certain loans taken out after December 15, 2017, but before April 1, 2019. If the exception applies, your loan may be treated in the same manner as a loan taken out on or before December 15, 2017. See IRS Publication 936 for more information about this exception. See Publication 936 to figure your deduction if you have loans taken out after October 13, 1987, that exceed $750,000 ($375,000 if you are married filing separately).

The term “points” is sometimes used to describe certain charges paid by a borrower. They are also called loan origination fees, maximum loan charges, or premium charges. If the payment of any of these charges is only for the use of money, it ordinarily is interest paid in advance and must be deducted in installments over the life of the mortgage (not deducted in full in the year of payment). However, points are deductible in the year paid if the following requirements are satisfied:

1. Your loan is secured by your main home. (Your main home is the one you ordinarily live in most of the time.)
2. Paying points is an established business practice in the area where the loan was made.
3. The points paid were not more than the points generally charged in that area.
4. You use the cash method of accounting. This means you report income in the year you receive it and deduct expenses in the year you pay them. Most individuals use this method. 5. The points were not paid in place of amounts that ordinarily are stated separately on the settlement statement, such as appraisal fees, inspection fees, title fees, attorney fees, and property taxes.

6. The funds you provided at or before closing, plus any points the seller paid, were at least as much as the points charged. The funds you provided are not required to have been applied to the points. They can include a down payment, an escrow deposit, earnest money, and other funds you paid at or before closing for any purpose. You cannot have borrowed these funds from your lender or mortgage broker.

7. You use your loan to buy or build your main home.

8. The points were computed as a percentage of the principal amount of the mortgage.

9. The amount is clearly shown on the settlement statement (such as the Settlement Statement, Form HUD-1) as points charged for the mortgage. The points may be shown as paid from either your funds or the seller’s.

Key Point: Points are not currently deductible when paid in association with the refinancing of the home. These points must be amortized over the life of the new mortgage.

Congress enacted legislation in 2019 that provides for the deductibility of mortgage insurance premiums (MIP) through 2020 and retroactively for tax years 2018 and 2019. Use Form 1098 Mortgage Interest Statement to report MIP aggregating $600 or more that you received during the calendar year in the course of your trade or business from an individual, including a sole proprietor.

Step 4: Gifts to Charity (lines 11–14)

Cash contributions to churches, schools, and most other public charities that are U.S. organizations are deductible up to 60% of AGI. Contributions of property are subject to different limitations. See IRS Publication 526. Contributions of cash or checks are reported on line 11, while contributions of non-cash property are reported on line 12. If you cannot itemize your deductions, a charitable contribution, up to $500, is allowed on Form 1040 line 10b.

The value of personal services is never deductible as a charitable contribution, but unreimbursed expenses incurred in performing services on behalf of a church or other charity may be. For example, if you drive to and from volunteer work on behalf of a charity, you may deduct the actual cost of gas and oil or you may claim the standard charitable mileage rate of 14 cents for each substantiated mile (for 2020 and 2021). Unreimbursed travel expenses incurred while away from home (whether within the United States or abroad) in the course of donated services to a tax-exempt religious or charitable organization are deductible as a charitable contribution. There are two ways to do this.

Individuals performing the charitable travel can keep track of their own travel expenses and then claim a charitable contribution for the total on Schedule A. (A letter acknowledging the individual’s service and containing the “no goods or services” statement should be obtained from the charity.) Or these individuals could provide their church or charity with a travel report substantiating all travel expenses. In such a case, the church or charity could issue the individual a charitable contribution receipt for the total amount of the substantiated travel expenses. Travel expenses that can be receipted include airfare, lodging, meals, and incidental expenses.

No charitable deduction is allowed for travel expenses incurred while away from home in performing services for a religious or charitable organization unless there is no significant element of personal pleasure, recreation, or vacation involved in the travel.

Charitable contributions must be claimed in the year they are delivered. One exception is a check that is mailed to a charity — it is deductible in the year the check is mailed (and postmarked), even if it is received early in the next year.

Charitable contributions generally are deductible only to the extent they exceed the value of any premium or benefit received by the donor in return for the contribution.

There are limits on the amount of a contribution that can be deducted. Generally, cash contributions to churches, schools, and other public charities are deductible up to a maximum of 60% of AGI. In some cases, contributions that exceed these limits can be carried over and claimed on future returns for up to five years. Some charitable contributions are limited to 20% or 30% of AGI, depending on the recipient and the form of the contribution.

Restricted contributions are those that are made to a church with the stipulation that they be used for a specified purpose. If the purpose is an approved project or program of the church, the designation will not affect the deductibility of the contribution. An example is a contribution to a church building fund. However, if a donor stipulates that a contribution be spent on a designated individual, no deduction is allowed unless the church exercises full administrative control over the donated funds to ensure that they are being spent in furtherance of the church’s exempt purposes. Restricted contributions that ordinarily are not deductible include contributions to church benevolence or scholarship funds that designate a specific recipient.
Contributions to benevolence or scholarship funds ordinarily are deductible if the donor does not earmark a specific recipient.

Contributions to a church or missions board that specify a particular missionary may be tax-deductible if the church or missions board exercises full administrative and accounting control over the contributions and ensures that they are spent in furtherance of the church’s mission. Direct contributions to missionaries, or any other individual, are not tax-deductible, even if they are used for religious or charitable purposes.

Charitable contributions must be properly substantiated. Individual cash contributions of less than $250 may be substantiated by a canceled check or a receipt from the charity. Special rules govern the substantiation of individual contributions of cash or property of $250 or more. The donor must substantiate these contributions with a qualifying receipt from the charity including a listing of the contributions and a statement that there were no goods or services provided in exchange for the contributions. These rules are further explained in the supplement to this guide entitled Federal Reporting Requirements for Churches.

Key Point: It is the responsibility of the donor to confirm that all donations claimed are supported by qualifying receipts. The consequence of failure is a loss of any contribution not supported by a qualifying receipt. This error cannot be corrected if discovered after the tax return is filed. Some churches and charities fail to issue qualifying receipts, so donors must be vigilant in meeting this requirement, since this is not an error that can be corrected after your tax return is filed.

If you contribute property that you value at $500 or more, you must include a completed Form 8283 with your Form 1040. Complete only Section A if the value claimed is between $500 and $5,000. If you claim a deduction of more than $5,000 for a contribution of non-cash property (other than publicly traded securities), then you must obtain a qualified appraisal of the property and include a qualified appraisal summary (Section B of Form 8283) with your Form 1040. If several related items are given, each with a value of less than $5,000, an appraisal may still be required since the group of items would be treated as one rather than on an individual basis.

Special rules apply to donations of cars, boats, and planes. A donation is not allowed if the value of the item is $500 or more unless the donor has received Form 1098-C. See the instructions to IRS Form 1098-C for details.

Key Point: The Tax Court ruled that a donor who contributed property worth more than $10,000 to a church was not eligible for a charitable contribution deduction, even though there was no dispute as to the value of the donated property, because he failed to attach a qualified appraisal summary (Form 8283) to the tax return on which the contribution was claimed.

Key Point: In the CARES Act of 2020, Congress enacted a provision in the legislation that allows non-itemizers an above-the-line “qualified charitable deduction” of up to $300 for charitable contributions.

Step 5: Casualty and Theft Losses (line 15)

You can deduct personal casualty and theft losses attributable to a federally declared disaster only to the extent that:

1. The amount of each separate casualty or theft loss is more than $100 and
2. The total amount of all losses during the year (reduced by the $100 limit discussed above) is more than 10% of the amount on Form 1040 or 1040-SR line 11. See the instructions for Form 4684 and Publication 547 for more information.

NOTE: Job Expenses and Most Other Miscellaneous Deductions

Employee business expenses that are either unreimbursed or reimbursed by an employer under a non-accountable arrangement are no longer deductible by an employee. This provision of the TCJA is effective for taxable years 2018 through 2025 unless extended by Congress.

The elimination of an itemized deduction for unreimbursed employee business expenses will hit some clergy hard. But this impact can be minimized if a church reimburses employees’ business expenses under an accountable expense reimbursement arrangement. To be accountable, a church’s reimbursement arrangement must comply with all four of the following rules:

1. Expenses must have a business connection — that is, the reimbursed expenses must represent expenses incurred by an employee while performing services for the employer.
2. Employees are reimbursed only for expenses for which they provide an adequate accounting within a reasonable period of time (not more than 60 days after an expense is incurred).
3. Employees must return any excess reimbursement or allowance within a reasonable period of time (not more than 120 days after an excess reimbursement is paid).
4. The income tax regulations caution that in order for an employer’s reimbursement arrangement to be accountable, it must meet a reimbursement requirement in addition to the three requirements summarized above. The reimbursement requirement means that an employer’s reimbursements of an employee’s business expenses come out of the employer’s funds and not by reducing the employee’s salary.

Accountable expense reimbursement plans are always preferable for the employee. Ministers previously claiming expenses as miscellaneous deductions did not gain a full tax deduction benefit from the process. The elimination of “all miscellaneous itemized deductions that are subject to the 2 percent floor under present law” (including unreimbursed employee business expenses and employee expenses reimbursed under a non-accountable plan) has encouraged many churches to move to accountable expense reimbursement plans, since section 62(a)(2)(A) of the tax code, which excludes from tax employer reimbursements of employee business expenses under an accountable plan (defined above), has not been modified.

Schedule B

Schedule B is used to report taxable interest income and dividend income of more than $1,500.

Step 1: Interest Income (lines 1–4)

List (on line 1) the name of each institution or individual that paid you taxable interest if you received more than $1,500 of taxable interest in 2020. Be sure the interest you report on line 1 corresponds to any Forms 1099-INT you received from such institutions. Do not include tax-exempt interest. Taxable interest income is carried over to line 2b of Form 1040.

Step 2: Dividend Income (lines 5–6)

List (on line 5) the name of each institution that paid you dividends if you received more than $1,500 in dividends in 2020. Be sure the dividends you report on line 5 correspond to any Forms 1099-DIV you received from such institutions. Ordinary dividend income is carried over to line 3b of Form 1040.

Step 3: Foreign Accounts and Foreign Trusts (lines 7–8)

Be sure to complete this part of the schedule if you had more than $1,500 of either taxable interest or ordinary dividends.

Key Point: If you have foreign bank accounts, you may be subject to additional filings. This can also occur if your church has foreign bank accounts and you have signature authority on the accounts. Many times the foreign bank account reporting is overlooked by taxpayers. Failure to comply can create substantial penalties.

Schedule C

Key Point: Most ministers who serve local churches or church agencies are employees for federal income tax purposes with respect to their church salary. They report their church salary on line 1 of Form 1040 and receive a Form W-2 from the church. They do not report their salary as self-employment earnings on Schedule C.

Key Point: Use Schedule C to report income and expenses from ministerial activities you conduct other than in your capacity as a church employee. Examples would be fees for guest speaking in other churches and fees received directly from church members for performing personal services, such as weddings and funerals.

Key Point: The IRS has discontinued the simplified Schedule C-EZ. Persons who used Schedule C-EZ in the past will now use Schedule C.

Step 1: Introduction

Complete the first several questions on Schedule C. Ministers should list code 541990 on line B, since for many years this was the code the IRS used in a clergy tax illustration in Publication 517. Some ministers who report their church compensation as self-employed point to this code as proof that ministers serving local churches can report as self-employed. This is not so. This code applies to the incidental self-employment activities of ministers who report their church salaries as employees. It also applies to those few ministers who are self-employed, such as traveling evangelists.

Step 2: Income (lines 1–7)

Report on line 1 your gross income from your self-employment activity.

Step 3: Expenses (lines 8–27)

Caution: Many ministers continue to report their income taxes as self-employed. One perceived advantage of doing so is the ability to deduct business expenses on Schedule C (and avoid the non-deductibility of unreimbursed and non-accountable reimbursed employee business expenses as itemized deductions on Schedule A). This advantage is often illusory. Most “self-employed” ministers, if audited by the IRS, would be reclassified as employees and their Schedule C deductions disallowed. This could result in substantial additional taxes, penalties, and interest. The best way for ministers to handle their business expenses is through an accountable expense reimbursement arrangement.
Report any business expenses associated with your self-employment earnings on lines 8 through 27. For example, if you incur transportation, travel, or other expenses in the course of performing self-employment activities, you deduct these expenses on lines 8 through 27 of Schedule C. Self-employed persons can deduct only 50% of business meals and meals associated with entertainment.

Key Point: Deductions are not allowed for expenses with respect to entertainment, amusement, or recreation. To clarify the application of this rule to meals related to entertainment, the IRS issued regulations clarifying that taxpayers may deduct 50% of an otherwise allowable business meal expense if (1) the expense is an ordinary and necessary expense paid or incurred during the taxable year in carrying on any trade or business; (2) the expense is not lavish or extravagant under the circumstances; (3) the taxpayer, or an employee of the taxpayer, is present at the furnishing of the food or beverages; (4) the food and beverages are provided to a current or potential business customer, client, consultant, or similar business contact; and (5) in the case of food and beverages provided during or at an entertainment activity, the food and beverages are purchased separately from the entertainment, or the cost of the food and beverages is stated separately from the cost of the entertainment on one or more bills, invoices, or receipts. The entertainment disallowance rule may not be circumvented through inflating the amount charged for food and beverages. Note that this clarification does not benefit employees whose business expenses are not reimbursed by their employer, since such expenses are non-deductible.

Ministers may be required to reduce the expenses deducted on Schedule C if a portion of the income is excluded from income as a housing allowance. The rules under IRC section 265 state that expenses associated with tax-free income may not be deducted. Therefore, expenses on Schedule C may have to be allocated between taxable and nontaxable income. (Many refer to this rule as the Deason Rule.)

Report self-employment income from Schedule C to Schedule 1 line 3 and carry over this and other items of additional income reported on Schedule 1 to line 8 of Form 1040.

Schedule SE

Key Point: Use Schedule SE to report Social Security taxes on any income you earned as a minister if you have not applied for and received IRS approval of an exemption application (Form 4361). Remember, ministers (except for some chaplains) are self-employed for Social Security with respect to their ministerial services. They pay SECA and not FICA with respect to compensation from such services.

Key Point: Ministers who have received IRS approval of an application for exemption from SECA (Form 4361) do not pay SECA on compensation received for their ministerial services. These ministers should enter “Exempt – Form 4361” on Schedule 2 line 4.

Step 1: Part I (line 2)

Most ministers use the short Schedule SE rather than the long Schedule SE. This means that they complete Part I “Self-Employment Tax” on page 1 of the schedule rather than Part II. Ministers report their net self-employment earnings on line 2 of Part I. This amount is computed as follows:

Add the following to your church salary reported on Form W-2 in Box 1:

- Other items of church income (including taxable fringe benefits)
- Fees you receive for weddings, baptisms, funerals, etc.
- Self-employment earnings from outside businesses
- Annual rental value of a parsonage, including utilities paid by the church (unless you are retired)
- A housing allowance (unless you are retired)
- Business expense reimbursements (under a non-accountable plan)
- The value of meals served on the church’s premises for the convenience of the employer
- Any amount a church pays toward your income tax or SECA

And then deduct the following:

- Most income tax exclusions other than meals or lodging furnished for the employer’s convenience and the foreign earned income exclusion
- Annual fair rental value of a parsonage provided to you after you retire
- Housing allowance provided to you after you retire
- Salary reduction contributions (elective deferrals) to a tax-sheltered annuity plan (403(b) plan) that are not included in your gross income above
- Pension payments or retirement allowances you receive for your past ministerial services
- Unreimbursed employee business expenses (net of reimbursements and after 50% reduction in meal expenses)
- Business expenses that were not deducted on Schedule C due to the allocation of a portion of the business expenses to the tax-free housing allowance pursuant to the requirements of IRC section 265(a)(1), better known as the “Deason Rule”

Step 2: Part I (line 4)

Ministers (and other taxpayers who are self-employed for Social Security) can reduce their taxable earnings by 7.65%, which is half the FICA paid by employers and employees. To do this, multiply net earnings from self-employment times 0.9235 on line 4. SECA is paid on the reduced amount.

Step 3: Part I (line 12)

SECA for 2020 is computed on this line. The SECA rate for 2020 is 15.3%, which consists of the following two components:
1. A Medicare hospital insurance (HI) tax of 2.9% and
2. An old-age, survivor and disability (Social Security) tax of 12.4%.

For 2020, the 2.9% HI tax applied to all net earnings from self-employment regardless of amount. For 2020, the 12.4%
Social Security tax applied to only the first $137,700 of net self-employment earnings. (For 2021, the maximum earnings subject to Social Security tax is $142,800.)

Form 8959 Additional Medicare Tax

An additional Medicare tax is calculated on wages or self-employment income of higher-income taxpayers. An HI tax of an additional tax of 0.9% on wages received in excess of certain amounts must be calculated. This additional tax applies to ministers subject to SECA. Unlike other FICA taxes, this additional tax is on the combined wages of a taxpayer and the taxpayer’s spouse in the case of a joint return. The threshold amount is $250,000 in the case of a joint return or surviving spouse and $200,000 for single persons. The $250,000 and $200,000 amounts are not adjusted for inflation and remain the same for 2021.

Ministers who are a part of a two-earner family may be subject to this additional tax and should plan accordingly.
Each working spouse may have wages and self-employment income of less than $250,000, but when added together, the total exceeds the threshold. This additional tax should be considered in preparing estimated tax payments or withholding instructions.

Form 2106

Key Point: In the past, Form 2106 was used by employees to compute employee business expenses claimed on Schedule A. For most taxpayers this form is now obsolete because of the suspension of an itemized deduction for employee business expenses on Schedule A.
Form 2106 is now used only by Armed Forces reservists, qualified performing artists, fee-basis state or local government officials, and employees with impairment-related work expenses.
Example One: Active Minister

Note: This example is based on an illustrated example contained at the end of IRS Publication 517.

Rev. John Michaels is the minister of the First Baptist Church. He is married and has one child. The child is considered a qualifying child for the child tax credit. Mrs. Michaels is not employed outside the home. Rev. Michaels is a common-law employee of the church, and he has not applied for an exemption from SECA. The church paid Rev. Michaels a salary of $45,000. In addition, as a self-employed person, he earned $4,000 during the year for weddings, baptisms, and honoraria. He made estimated tax payments during the year totaling $12,000. He taught a course at the local community college, for which he was paid $3,400. None of the wages paid to Rev. Michaels during 2020 were related to a coronavirus leave of absence under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act. Rev. Michaels owns a home next to the church. He makes a $1,125 per month mortgage payment of principal and interest only. His utility bills and other housing-related expenses for the year totaled $1,450, and the real estate taxes on his home amounted to $1,750 for the year. The church paid him $1,400 per month as his housing allowance. The home’s fair rental value is $1,380 per month (furnished, plus utilities). Additionally, Rev. Michaels made cash charitable contributions of $6,000 to section 501(c)(3) public charities in 2020. Rev. Michaels has chosen not to defer payment of his SECA under special 2020 coronavirus relief legislation. Rev. Michaels received a coronavirus economic impact payment (stimulus check) in the amount of $2,900 and therefore does not qualify for a recovery rebate credit.

The parts of Rev. and Mrs. Michaels’ income tax return are explained in the order they are completed. They are illustrated in the order that Rev. Michaels will assemble the return to send it to the IRS.

Form W-2 from Church

The church completed Form W-2 for Rev. Michaels as follows:

Box 1. The church entered Rev. Michaels’ $45,000 salary.

Box 2. The church left this box blank because Rev. Michaels did not request federal income tax withholding.

Boxes 3–6. Rev. Michaels is considered a self-employed person for purposes of FICA withholding, so the church left these boxes blank.

Box 14. The church entered Rev. Michaels’ total housing allowance for the year and identified it.

TurboTax® Tip: Listed below are tips for ministers who use TurboTax to complete their returns. We have listed our recommended responses to some of the questions asked by the software when entering your Form W-2 from your church. These tips should not be construed as an endorsement or recommendation of the TurboTax software.

1. “Do any of these apply to this Form W-2?”

   Be sure to check the box that says, “Religious employment — This income was for religious employment (clergy, non-clergy, religious sect).”

2. “About your religious employment.”

   Please note that ministers fall under the category of clergy employment.

3. “Tell us about your clergy housing.”

   TurboTax then asks for the parsonage or housing allowance, as well as the amount of qualifying expenses. The amount you should enter for qualifying expenses is the lesser of your actual housing expenses, the annual fair rental value of your home (furnished, plus utilities), or the amount of your pay that was designated as ministerial housing allowance by your church.

4. “How would you like us to calculate clergy self-employment tax?”

   Please note that SECA should be paid on wages and housing allowance. See Schedule SE TurboTax Tip for additional information.

Form W-2 from College

The community college gave Rev. Michaels a Form W-2 that showed the following:

Box 1. The college entered Rev. Michaels’ $3,400 salary.

Box 2. The college withheld $272 in federal income tax on Rev. Michaels’ behalf.

Boxes 3 and 5. As an employee of the college, Rev. Michaels is subject to FICA withholding on his full salary from the college.

Box 4. The college withheld $210.80 in Social Security taxes.

Box 6. The college withheld $49.30 in Medicare taxes.

Schedule C

Note, for tax years 2019 and later, the IRS announced that it will not be issuing the Schedule C-EZ. Therefore, Schedule C will be used.

Some of Rev. Michaels’ entries on Schedule C are explained here.

Line 1. Rev. Michaels reports the $4,000 from weddings, baptisms, and honoraria.

Lines 2–7. Rev. Michaels fills out these lines to report his gross income reported on line 7. Rev. Michaels did not have any returns or allowances, cost of goods sold, or other income for the year. Therefore, the amount reported on line 7 is $4,000.

Lines 8–27a. Rev. Michaels reports his expenses related to the line 1 amount. The total consisted of $87 for marriage and family booklets and $251 for 437 miles of business use of his car, mainly in connection with honoraria. Rev. Michaels used the standard mileage rate to figure his car expense. He multiplied the standard mileage rate of 57.5 cents by 437 miles for a total of $251. These expenses total $338 ($251 + $87).

Line 9. Rev. Michaels reports his car expenses on this line. However, he cannot deduct the part of his expenses allocable to his tax-free housing allowance. He attaches the required statement, Attachment 1 (shown later), to his return showing that 25% (or $65) of his car expenses are not deductible because they are allocable to that tax-free allowance. He subtracts the $63 from the $251 and enters the $188 difference on line 9. Rev. Michaels also reports information regarding his vehicle in Part IV.

Line 27a. Rev. Michaels reports $87 for marriage and family booklets. However, he cannot deduct the part of his expenses allocable to his tax-free housing allowance. He attaches the required statement, Attachment 1 (shown later), to his return showing that 25% (or $22) of his expenses are not deductible because they are allocable to that tax-free allowance. He subtracts the $22 from the $87 and enters the $65 difference on line 27a. He also reports a description of the expense in Part V.

Line 28. Rev. Michaels enters his total expenses, less the 25% allocable to his tax-free housing allowance, ($188 + $65) on line 28.

Lines 29–31. He enters his tentative profit of $3,747 reported on line 29, less any expenses for business use of his home, on line 31. Rev. Michaels did not have any expenses for business use of his home; therefore his net income is $3,747. Net income on Schedule C is also reported on Schedule 1 line 3.

Lines 43–47b. Rev. Michaels fills out these lines to report information about his car.

Line 48. Rev. Michaels reports the total other expenses included on line 27a.

TurboTax Tip: TurboTax does not appear to calculate the non-deductible portion of the expenses that should be allocated to the tax-free portion of the housing allowance. The taxpayer will need to adjust the expenses (as shown in Attachment 1) and input the reduced figure into the software.

Schedule SE

After Rev. Michaels prepares Schedule C, he fills out Schedule SE. Rev. Michaels is a minister, so his salary from the church is not considered church employee income. Additionally, Rev. Michaels did not apply for an exemption from SECA by filing Form 4361 and therefore leaves the first box on Schedule SE unchecked. He fills out the following lines in Part I:

Line 2. Rev. Michaels attaches a statement, Attachment 2 (shown later), that explains how he figures the amount ($63,826) he enters here. The calculation in Attachment 2 includes unreimbursed business expenses from his work for the church. Although unreimbursed business expenses are clearly no longer deductible on Schedule A as itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes, there is still some ambiguity as of the date of this writing as to whether these expenses remain deductible for SECA purposes. Although not abundantly clear, language in IRS Publication 517 appears to allow a deduction of these expenses for SECA purposes against wages earned by a minister as a common-law employee of a church. Based on the commentary in Chapter 9 and the underlying rulings discussed therein, the author has prepared this example assuming these expenses are deductible against self-employment earnings. Ministers should consult with their personal tax advisors regarding the deductibility of these expenses for purposes of SECA on their 2020 Form 1040, in light of the developing nature of guidance in this area as of the date of this writing. Rev. Michaels’ records show that he drove 2,465 miles. He multiplies miles driven by the mileage rate of 57.5 cents. The combined result is $1,417. Additionally, Rev. Michaels paid $219 for professional publications and booklets in connection with his work for the church. The total unreimbursed business expenses were $1,636. After including the $85 of Schedule C expenses allocable to tax-free income, the total deductions against self-employment income are $1,721.

Lines 4a–6. He multiplies $63,826 by 0.9235 to get his net earnings from self-employment ($58,943). This amount is then carried through to line 6, since Rev. Michaels does not have any other adjustments.

Line 10. The amount on line 6 is less than $137,700, so Rev. Michaels multiplies the amount on line 6 ($58,943) by 0.124 to get the Social Security portion of SECA of $7,309.

Line 11. He multiplies the amount on line 6 by 0.029 to calculate the Medicare portion of SECA of $1,709.
Line 12. He adds the Social Security tax from line 10 and the Medicare tax on line 11 to determine his total SECA of $9,018. Rev. Michaels enters that amount here and on Schedule 2 lines 4 and 10.

Line 13. Rev. Michaels multiplies the amount on line 12 by 0.50 to get his deduction for the employer-equivalent portion of SECA of $4,509. He enters that amount here and on Schedule 1 line 1.

TurboTax Tip: The software asks about SECA on clergy wages. The taxpayer should check the box to pay SECA on wages and housing allowance (assuming, as shown in this example, that the minister has not applied for exemption from SECA). Please note that the software does not appear to automatically reduce self-employment wages by the business expenses allocated to tax-free income. The taxpayer will need to adjust net self-employment income (as shown in Attachment 2) and input the reduced figure into the software. This can be done by going into the “Business Taxes” section and selecting “Self-Employment Tax”. Choose “Make Adjustments”, and enter in the “Ministerial Business Expenses” item the additional expenses that were not deducted elsewhere on the return ($1,721 in this example — see Attachment 2).

QBI Deduction (Form 8995)

Ministers who have net profit reported on Schedule C for ministerial services and who have 2020 taxable income of less than $163,300 ($326,600 if MFJ) before the application of a QBI deduction may be eligible for the QBI deduction.

After Rev. Michaels prepares Schedule SE, he fills out Form 8995.

Line 1i, column (c). Rev. Michaels reports the net profit or loss from Schedule C line 31 ($3,747) less the portion of the deduction for SECA allocable to this net profit ($3,747 x 0.9235 x 0.153 x 0.5 = $265), which results in $3,482 on line 1i, column (c). Since there are no other amounts listed on lines 1ii through 1v, he also reports the amount on line 2.

Line 4. Rev. Michaels adds the total QBI or loss reported on line 2 ($3,482) to any qualified business net losses carried forward from the prior year. Since there are no qualified business net losses carried forward from the prior year, he enters the amount on line 4.

Line 5. Rev. Michaels multiplies line 4 by 20% and enters the resulting amount ($696) on line 5. Since there are no other amounts reported on lines 6–9, he also reports the amount on line 10.

Line 11. Rev. Michaels adds the total taxable income before QBI deduction ($22,778) on line 11. This amount is equal to the total wages, salaries, and Schedule C income less the deductible amount of SECA and standard deduction ($48,640 + $3,747 - $4,509 - 300, the special charitable contribution deduction on Form 1040 line 10b - $24,800, the standard deduction from line 9 of Form 1040). Since there are no other amounts reported on line 12, he also reports the amount on line 13.

Line 15. Rev. Michaels multiplies line 13 by 20% ($4,556), which he reports on line 14. He then reports the lesser of line 10 or line 14 on line 15 ($696). Rev. Michaels also enters this amount on Form 1040 line 13.

Form 1040, Schedule 1, and Schedule 2

After Rev. Michaels prepares the above schedules, he fills out Form 1040, along with Schedules 1 and 2 to the extent required. He files a joint return with his wife. First he fills out Form 1040, page 1 and completes the appropriate lines for his filing status and exemptions. Then, he fills out the rest of the forms as follows:

Form 1040 line 1. Rev. Michaels reports $48,640. This amount is the total of his $45,000 church salary, $3,400 college salary, and $240, the excess of the amount designated and paid to him as a housing allowance over the lesser of his actual expenses and the fair rental value of his home (furnished, plus utilities). The two salaries were reported to him in Box 1 of the Forms W-2 he received.

Schedule 1 line 3. He reports his net profit of $3,747 from Schedule C line 31. Since no other amounts are reported on Schedule 1 lines 1–8, he also reports this amount on line 9 and carries the figure to Form 1040 line 8.

Form 1040 line 9. Rev. Michaels adds Form 1040 line 1 and the amount reported on Form 1040 line 8 and enters the total ($52,387) on line 9.

Form 1040 lines 10a and 10b. Because Rev. Michaels has reported deductible SECA on Schedule 1 line 14, Rev. Michaels goes to Schedule 1 and completes Part II of the form. Since there are no other amounts listed on lines 10–21, Rev. Michaels reports $4,509 on line 22 and enters this amount on Form 1040 line 10a. Additionally, in 2020, a maximum $300 charitable contribution deduction is allowed on Form 1040 line 10b for qualifying charitable contributions. Since Rev. Michaels made cash contributions of $6,000 to a qualifying 501(c)(3) public charity, he enters the maximum contribution deduction of $300 on line 10b. Lines 10a and 10b are added and reported on line 10c ($4,809). Line 10c is subtracted from line 9, and the result ($47,578) is entered on Form 1040 line 11. This is his AGI.

Form 1040 line 12. He enters the standard deduction for married couples filing jointly ($24,800) on line 12.

Form 1040 line 13. Rev. Michaels adds the QBI deduction on Form 8995 line 15 and enters the total ($696) on line 13.
Form 1040 line 14. Rev. Michaels adds the amounts on Form 1040 lines 12 and 13 and enters the total ($25,496) on line 14.

Form 1040 line 15. Rev. Michaels subtracts line 14 from line 11. This is his taxable income.

Form 1040, page 2, line 16. Rev. Michaels uses the tax tables in the 2020 Form 1040 instructions to determine his applicable tax and enters the amount ($2,254) in the space provided on line 16.

Form 1040, page 2, line 19. The Michaelses can take the child tax credit for their daughter, Jennifer. Rev. Michaels figures the credit by completing the Child Tax Credit Worksheet (not shown) contained in the Form 1040 general instructions. He enters the $2,000 credit on lines 19 and 21. (Note: The Michaelses are not required to attach Schedule 8812 to claim the child tax credit, since they are not eligible for the additional child tax credit and their daughter does not have an Individual Taxpayer Identification Number (ITIN). The IRS issues ITINs to foreign nationals and others who have federal tax reporting or filing requirements and do not qualify for SSNs. Since Jennifer has an SSN, she is not required to obtain an ITIN and therefore Schedule 8812 is not applicable.)

Form 1040, page 2, line 23 and Schedule 2. Rev. Michaels completes Schedule 2. Since the only amount reported on Schedule 2 is his SECA from Schedule SE, he reports the amount ($9,018) on Schedule 2 line 10 and on Form 1040, page 2, line 23.

Form 1040, page 2, line 24. He adds the amount reported on line 22 and SECA reported on line 23. This represents his total tax obligation.

Form 1040, page 2, lines 25a and 25d. He enters the federal income tax shown in Box 2 of his Form W-2 from the college.

Form 1040, page 2, line 26. Rev. Michaels enters the $12,000 estimated tax payments he made for the year on line 26.

Form 1040, page 2, line 33. He adds the amount reported on lines 25d and 26 to show the total tax payments made on line 33 ($12,272).

Form 1040, page 2, line 34. Rev. Michaels totals his overpayment by subtracting line 33 from line 24 ($3,000).

Example Two: Retired Minister

Rev. William K. Green is a retired minister. He is 69 years old. He is married to Sarah J. Green. She is 65 years old and is also retired. For 2020, Rev. Green received $15,000 in annuity income, all of which was designated in advance by GuideStone as a housing allowance. Rev. Green had housing expenses of $13,000. The home’s fair rental value is $1,200 per month (furnished, plus utilities). Housing allowances for retired ministers are not taxable in computing federal income tax to the extent that they do not exceed the lesser of actual housing expenses or the annual fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities). Retirement benefits, whether or not designated in advance as a housing allowance, are not subject to SECA.

Rev. Green received $12,000 of Social Security benefits in 2020, and his wife received $6,000. None of this income is taxable, however, because the Greens’ income is not enough to expose their Social Security benefits to tax.

In 2020, Rev. Green received $2,000 from occasional guest preaching engagements. He incurred $586 in expenses as a result of these activities ($436 of travel expenses and $150 of meal expenses). Note that Rev. Green will pay SECA on this income (see Schedule SE), since it represents compensation from active ministry. Rev. Green made cash contributions of $3,500 to qualifying 501(c)(3) public charities during 2020. Rev. Green has chosen not to defer payment of his SECA under special 2020 coronavirus relief legislation. Rev. Green received a coronavirus economic impact payment (stimulus check) in the amount of $2,400 and therefore does not qualify for a recovery rebate credit.

The parts of Rev. and Mrs. Green’s income tax return are explained in the order they are completed. They are illustrated in the order that Rev. Green will assemble the return to send it to the IRS.

Form 1099-R from GuideStone

GuideStone completed Form 1099-R for Rev. Green as follows:

Box 1. The $15,000 pension income Rev. Green receives from GuideStone.

Box 2b. Taxable amount not determined. GuideStone designated in advance 100% of pension income as a housing allowance. It is not taxable to the extent that it does not exceed the lesser of actual housing expenses or the annual fair rental value of the home (furnished, plus utilities).

Box 7. Rev. Green’s pension income is a normal distribution.

Schedule C

Note, for 2019 and later tax years, the IRS announced that it will not be issuing the Schedule C-EZ. Therefore, Schedule C will be used.

Some of Rev. Green’s entries on Schedule C are explained here.

Line 1. Rev. Green reports the $2,000 from occasional guest preaching engagements.

Lines 2–7. Rev. Green fills out these lines to report his gross income reported on line 7. Rev. Green did not have any returns or allowances, cost of goods sold, or other income for the year. Therefore, the amount reported on line 7 is $2,000.

Line 9. Rev. Green reports his car expenses on this line. Rev. Green incurred 758 miles of business use of his car, in connection with guest preaching. Rev. Green used the standard mileage rate to figure his car expense. He multiplied the standard mileage rate of 57.5 cents by 758 miles for a total of $436. However, he cannot deduct the part of his expenses allocable to his tax-free parsonage allowance. He attaches the required statement, Attachment 1 (shown later), to his return showing that 76% (or $331) of his expenses are not deductible because they are allocable to that tax-free allowance. He subtracts the $331 from the $436 and enters the $105 difference on line 9.

Line 24b. Rev. Green also incurred $75 ($150 x 50% nondeductible) in business meal expenses in connection with guest preaching engagements. However, he cannot deduct the part of his expenses allocable to his tax-free housing allowance. He attaches the required statement, Attachment 1 (shown later), to his return showing that 76% (or $57) of his business meal expenses are not deductible because they are allocable to that tax-free allowance. He subtracts the $57 from the $75 and enters the $18 difference on line 24b.

Line 28. Rev. Green enters his total expenses, less the 76% allocable to his tax-free housing allowance ($105 + $18) on line 28.

Lines 29–31. He enters his tentative profit of $1,877 on lines 29 and 31 (since Rev. Green did not have any expenses for the business use of his home). The net income from Schedule C is also reported on Schedule 1 line 3.

Lines 43–47b. Rev. Green fills out these lines to report information about his car.

TurboTax Tip: Listed below are tips for ministers who use TurboTax to complete their returns. These tips should not be construed as an endorsement or recommendation of the TurboTax software.

TurboTax does not appear to calculate the non-deductible portion of the expenses that should be allocated to the tax-free portion of the housing allowance. The taxpayer will need to adjust the expenses (as shown in Attachment 1) and input the reduced figure into the software.
Schedule SE

After Rev. Green prepares Schedule C, he fills out Schedule SE. Ministers are not church employees under this definition. Additionally, Rev. Green did not apply for an exemption from SECA by filing Form 4361 and therefore leaves the first box on Schedule SE unchecked. He fills out the following lines in Part I:

- Line 2. Rev. Green attaches a statement, Attachment 2 (shown later), which calculates his net profit of $1,489, and he enters that amount here.
- Lines 4a–6. He multiplies the $1,489 by 0.9235 to get his net earnings from self-employment ($1,375). This amount is then carried through to line 6.
- Line 10. The amount on line 6 is less than $137,700, so Rev. Green multiplies the amount on line 6 ($1,375) by 0.124 to get his self-employment Social Security tax of $171.
- Line 11. He multiplies the amount on line 6 by 0.029 to calculate the Medicare portion of SECA to be $40.
- Line 12. He adds the Social Security tax from line 10 and the Medicare tax on line 11 to determine his total SECA of $211. Rev. Green enters that amount here and on Schedule 2 lines 4 and 10.
- Line 13. Rev. Green multiplies the amount on line 12 by 0.50 to get his deduction for the employer-equivalent portion of SECA of $106. He enters that amount here and on Schedule 1 line 14.

TurboTax Tip: The software does not appear to reduce self-employment wages by the business expenses allocated to tax-free income. The taxpayer will need to adjust net self-employment income (as shown in Attachment 2) and input the reduced figure into the software.

QBI Deduction (Form 8995)

Ministers who have net profit reported on Schedule C for ministerial services and who have 2020 taxable income of less than $163,300 ($326,600 if MFJ) before the application of a QBI deduction may be eligible for such a deduction. However, since the Greens’ taxable income before the application of a QBI deduction is $0 (see completion of Form 1040 section below), the Greens are not eligible for such a deduction in 2020.

Form 1040, Schedule 1, and Schedule 2

After Rev. Green prepares Schedule C and Schedule SE, he fills out Form 1040, along with Schedules 1 and 2 to the extent required. Rev. Green files a joint return with his wife. First he fills out Form 1040, page 1 and completes the appropriate lines for his filing status, including checking the appropriate boxes indicating that he and his wife were born before January 2, 1955. Then, he fills out the rest of the form as follows:

Form 1040 line 5a. Rev. Green reports his total annuity income of $15,000 on line 5a. He reports the taxable amount ($2,000) as computed on Attachment 1 (shown later) on line 5b.

Form 1040 lines 6a and 6b. Since none of Rev. Green’s Social Security benefits are taxable, he does not report any amount on line 6b.

Schedule 1 line 9. He reports his net profit of $1,877 from Schedule C line 31 on Schedule 1 line 3. Since no other amounts are reported on Schedule 1 lines 1–8, he also reports this amount on line 9 and carries the figure to the blank space on Form 1040 line 8.

Form 1040 line 9. Rev. Green adds Form 1040 line 5b and the amount reported on Form 1040 line 8 and enters the total ($3,877) on line 9.

Form 1040 lines 10a and 10b. Because Rev. Green has reported deductible SECA of $106 on Schedule 1 line 14, Rev. Green goes to Schedule 1 and completes the bottom section of the form. Since there are no other amounts listed on lines 10–21, Rev. Green reports $106 on line 22 and carries this amount to line 10a of Form 1040. Additionally, in 2020, a maximum $300 charitable contribution deduction is allowed on Form 1040 line 10b for qualifying charitable contributions. Since Rev. Green made cash contributions of $3,500 to qualifying 501(c)(3) public charities, he enters the maximum contribution deduction of $300 on line 10b. Lines 10a and 10b are added and reported on line 10c ($406). Line 10c is subtracted from line 9, and the result ($3,471) is entered on Form 1040 line 11. This is his AGI.

Form 1040 line 12. Rev. Green enters his standard deduction of $27,400 (which takes into consideration the fact he and his wife were born before January 2, 1955) on line 12. Since there is no amount listed for QBI deduction on line 13, Rev. Green reports $27,400 on line 14.

Form 1040 line 15. Rev. Green has no taxable income.

Form 1040, page 2, line 23 and Schedule 2. Rev. Green completes Schedule 2. Since the only amount reported on Schedule 2 is his SECA from Schedule SE, he reports the amount ($211) on Schedule 2 line 10 and on Form 1040 line 23.

Form 1040 line 25b. Rev. Green did not have any income tax withheld from his pension.

Form 1040 line 37. Amount Rev. Green owes to the IRS.

INTRODUCTION

The most important federal reporting obligation for most churches is the withholding and reporting of employee income taxes and Social Security taxes. These payroll reporting requirements apply, in whole or in part, to almost every church. Yet many churches do not fully comply with them for various reasons, including the following:

- The church treasurer is elected by the congregation and does not remain in office long enough to understand the application of the payroll tax reporting rules to churches.
- Church leaders assume that churches are exempt from the payroll tax reporting requirements. This is a false assumption. The courts have rejected the argument that the application of the payroll tax reporting rules to churches violates the constitutional guaranty of religious freedom.
- There are a number of special payroll tax reporting rules that apply to churches, and these often are not clearly understood by church staff members. These special rules include the following:
  - While most ministers are employees for federal income tax reporting, they are self-employed for Social Security with respect to compensation they receive for ministerial services. This means that they pay the self-employment tax (SECA) rather than the employee’s share of Social Security and Medicare taxes (FICA) — even if they report their federal income taxes as a church employee. It is a common mistake for churches to treat ministers as employees for Social Security and to withhold the employee’s share of FICA from their wages.
  - Housing Allowance (and Parsonage Allowance)
    - Key Point: The housing allowance was challenged in federal court as an unconstitutional preference for religion. In 2019, a federal appeals court rejected this argument and affirmed the constitutionality of the allowance.
    - The most important tax benefit available to ministers who own or rent their home is the housing allowance exclusion. Unfortunately, many churches fail to designate a portion of their minister’s compensation as a housing allowance and thereby deprive the minister of an important tax benefit.
      - Key Point: Under no circumstances can a church designate a housing allowance retroactively.
      - Key Point: Although repayments of principal and interest on a home mortgage loan qualify as a housing expense to which a housing allowance can be applied, costs associated with refinancing a principal residence or a home equity loan qualify only if the proceeds are used for housing expenses.

MAXIMIZING TAX BENEFITS FOR YOUR MINISTER

Housing Allowance (and Parsonage Allowance)

- Key Point: The housing allowance was challenged in federal court as an unconstitutional preference for religion. In 2019, a federal appeals court rejected this argument and affirmed the constitutionality of the allowance.

The most important tax benefit available to ministers who own or rent their home is the housing allowance exclusion. Unfortunately, many churches fail to designate a portion of their minister’s compensation as a housing allowance and thereby deprive the minister of an important tax benefit.

A housing allowance is simply a portion of a minister’s compensation that is so designated in advance by the minister’s employing church. For example, in December 2020 a church agrees to pay its pastor total compensation of $45,000 for 2021 and designates $15,000 of this amount as a housing allowance (the remaining $30,000 is salary). This costs the church nothing. It is simply a matter of designating part of a minister’s salary as a housing allowance.

The tax code specifies that the housing allowance of a minister who owns or rents a home is nontaxable in computing federal income taxes to the extent that it is (1) declared in advance, (2) used for housing expenses, and (3) does not exceed the fair rental value of the minister’s home (furnished, plus utilities).

- Key Point: Under no circumstances can a church designate a housing allowance retroactively.

- Key Point: Although repayments of principal and interest on a home mortgage loan qualify as a housing expense to which a housing allowance can be applied, costs associated with refinancing a principal residence or a home equity loan qualify only if the proceeds are used for housing expenses.

Ministers who live in a church-owned parsonage that is provided rent-free as compensation for ministerial services do not include the annual fair rental value of the parsonage as income in computing their federal income taxes. The annual fair rental value is not deducted from the minister’s income. Rather, it is not reported as additional income on Form 1040 (as it generally would be by non-clergy workers). Ministers who live in a church-provided parsonage do not pay federal income taxes on the amount of their compensation that their employing church designates in advance as a parsonage allowance, to the extent that the allowance represents compensation for ministerial services and is used to pay parsonage-related expenses such as utilities, repairs, and furnishings.

Note that the housing allowance and fair rental value of a parsonage are nontaxable only when computing federal income taxes. Ministers must include their housing allowance and rental value of a parsonage as taxable income when computing their SECA (except for retired ministers). In addition, any housing provided to a minister that is excludible from taxable income pursuant to IRC §119 (relating to housing provided on an employer’s premises “for the convenience of the employer”) also must be included in a minister’s taxable income when computing self-employment income.

Key Point: Be sure that the designation of a housing allowance for the following year is on the agenda of the church or church board for its last meeting of the current year. The designation should be an official action, and it should be duly recorded in the minutes of the meeting. The IRS also recognizes designations in employment contracts and budget line items — assuming that the church duly adopted the designation and it is reflected in a written document.

Accountable Reimbursements

The elimination of an itemized deduction for most expenses, including unreimbursed employee business expenses, will hit some clergy hard. Many tax professionals are encouraging the use of accountable reimbursement plans as a means of easing the negative tax impact. The basis for this idea is the fact that while the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 eliminated “all miscellaneous itemized deductions that are subject to the 2 percent floor” (including unreimbursed employee business expenses and non-accountable reimbursed expenses), it did not modify or repeal section 62(a)(2)(A) of the tax code, which excludes from tax employer reimbursements of employee business expenses under an accountable plan.

To be accountable, a church’s reimbursement arrangement must comply with all four of the following rules:

1. Expenses must have a business connection — that is, the reimbursed expenses must represent expenses incurred by an employee while performing services for the employer.
2. Employees are reimbursed only for expenses for which they provide an adequate accounting within a reasonable period of time (not more than 60 days after an expense is incurred).
3. Employees must return any excess reimbursement or allowance within a reasonable period of time (not more than 120 days after an excess reimbursement is paid).
4. The income tax regulations caution that in order for an employer’s reimbursement arrangement to be accountable, it must meet a reimbursement requirement in addition to the three requirements summarized above. The reimbursement requirement means that an employer’s reimbursements of an employee’s business expenses would come out of the employer’s funds and not by reducing the employee’s salary.

Key Point: Reimbursements of business expenses under an accountable arrangement are not reported as taxable income on an employee’s Form W-2 or Form 1040, and there are no deductions to claim. In effect, the employee is reporting to the church rather than to the IRS. This often translates into significant tax savings for the employee.

An accountable reimbursement arrangement should be established by the church board or congregation in an appropriate resolution. Be sure to condition the reimbursement of any expense on adequate substantiation. This will include written evidence for all expenses and receipts for most expenses of $75 or more and for all lodging expenses — no matter the amount. For most expenses, the evidence must substantiate the amount, date, place, and business nature of each expense. The key point is this: A church must require the same degree of substantiation as would be required for a deduction on the minister’s income tax return.

Churches occasionally reimburse ministers for non-business expenses. Such reimbursements, though they require an accounting, ordinarily must be included in the minister’s wages for income tax reporting purposes, and they are not deductible by the minister. Instead, the entire amount of these reimbursements must be reported as taxable income on the minister’s Form W-2 and Form 1040. For example, reimbursing the travel costs associated with the minister’s spouse to travel with the minister is a non-business expense, even if the church requires the spouse to accompany the minister for accountability purposes. The reimbursement of the travel expenses would be taxable to the minister.

Flexible Spending Accounts

A health Flexible Spending Account (FSA) allows employees to be reimbursed for medical expenses. FSAs are usually funded through voluntary salary reduction agreements with one’s employer. No payroll taxes are deducted from employee contributions. The employer also may contribute.

FSAs have several benefits, including the following: (1) Employer contributions can be nontaxable; (2) no payroll taxes are deducted from employee contributions; (3) withdrawals may be tax-free if used to pay qualified medical expenses; and (4) employees can withdraw funds from an FSA to pay qualified medical expenses even if they have not placed the funds in the account.

Generally, distributions from a health FSA must be paid to reimburse the employee for qualified medical expenses. Qualified medical expenses are those incurred by an employee or the employee’s spouse and certain dependents (including a child under age 27 at the end of the year).

Employees must be able to receive the total amount they have elected to contribute for the year at any time during the year, regardless of the amount they have actually contributed.

FSAs are “use-it-or-lose-it” plans. This means that amounts in the account at the end of the plan year cannot be carried over to the next year. However, the plan can provide for a grace period of up to 2½ months after the end of the plan year. If there is a grace period, any qualified medical expenses incurred in that period can be paid from any amounts left in the account at the end of the previous year. An employer is not permitted to refund any part of the balance to the employee.

Key Point: An employer, at its option, may amend its cafeteria plan document to provide for the carryover to the immediately following plan year of up to $550 of any amount remaining unused as of the end of the plan year in a health FSA (for 2021). The carryover of up to $550 may be used to pay or reimburse medical expenses under the health FSA incurred during the entire plan year to which it is carried over. For this purpose, the amount remaining unused as of the end of the plan year is the amount unused after medical expenses have been reimbursed at the end of the plan’s run-out period for the plan year. In addition to the unused amounts of up to $550 that a plan may permit an individual to carry over to the next year, the plan may permit the individual to also elect up to the maximum allowed salary reduction amount ($2,750 for 2020 and 2021). Thus, the carryover of up to $550 does not count against or otherwise affect the $2,750 salary reduction limit applicable to each plan year. Although the maximum unused amount allowed to be carried over in any plan year is $550, the plan may specify a lower amount as the permissible maximum (and the plan sponsor has the option of not permitting any carryover at all).

The maximum amount available for reimbursement of incurred medical expenses of an employee and the employee’s dependents under a health FSA cannot exceed $2,750 for 2020 and 2021.

Note that the Affordable Care Act (ACA) prohibits employers from using an FSA to pay for or reimburse the cost of individually owned health insurance policies with pretax dollars.

Key Point: Non-prescription medicines (other than insulin) do not qualify as an expense for FSA purposes.

Section 403(b) Retirement Plans

A 403(b) plan, also known as a tax-sheltered annuity or retirement income account, is a retirement plan for certain employees of churches and other tax-exempt organizations. These plans have the following tax benefits: (1) Employees do not pay income tax on allowable contributions until they begin making withdrawals from the plan, usually after they retire. Note, however, that lay employees must pay FICA on their contributions made under a salary reduction agreement to a 403(b) plan. (2) Earnings and gains on amounts in an employee’s 403(b) account are not taxed until they are withdrawn. (3) Employees may be eligible to claim the retirement savings contributions credit (Saver’s Credit) for elective deferrals contributed to a 403(b) account.

There are limits on the amount of contributions that can be made to a 403(b) account each year. If contributions made to a 403(b) account are more than these contribution limits, penalties may apply. Generally, annual contributions to a 403(b) plan cannot exceed either the limit on annual additions or the limit on elective deferrals. See IRS Publication 571 for details.

COMPLYING WITH FEDERAL PAYROLL TAX REPORTING OBLIGATIONS

Step 1. Obtain an employer identification number (EIN) from the federal government if this has not been done.

This number must be recorded on some of the forms listed below and is used to reconcile a church’s deposits of withheld taxes with the Forms W-2 it issues to employees. The employer identification number (EIN) is a nine-digit number that looks like this: 00-0246810. If your church does not have an EIN, you may apply for one online. Go to the IRS website at IRS.gov for information. You may also apply for an EIN by calling 1-800-829-4933, or you can fax or mail Form SS-4 to the IRS. You should have only one EIN.

Key Point: An EIN is not a tax exemption number and has no relation to your nonprofit corporation status. It merely identifies you as an employer subject to tax withholding and reporting and ensures that your church receives proper credit for payments of withheld taxes. You can obtain an EIN by submitting a Form SS-4 to the IRS.
Step 2. Determine whether each church worker is an employee or self-employed.

In some cases, it is difficult to determine whether a particular worker is an employee or is self-employed. If in doubt, churches should treat a worker as an employee, since substantial penalties can be assessed against a church for treating a worker as self-employed whom the IRS later reclassifies as an employee. In general, a self-employed worker is one who is not subject to the control of an employer with respect to how a job is to be done. Further, a self-employed person typically is engaged in a specific trade or business and offers his or her services to the general public.

The IRS and the courts have applied various tests to assist in classifying a worker as an employee or self-employed. Factors that tend to indicate employee status include the following:

- The worker is required to follow an employer's instructions regarding when, where, and how to work.
- The worker receives on-the-job training from an experienced employee.
- The worker is expected to perform the services personally and not use a substitute.
- The employer rather than the worker hires and pays any assistants.
- The worker has a continuing working relationship with the employer.
- The employer establishes set hours of work.
- The worker is guaranteed a regular wage amount for an hourly, weekly, or other period of time.
- The worker is expected to work full time.
- The work is done on the employer's premises.
- The worker must submit regular oral or written reports to the employer.
- The worker's business expenses are reimbursed by the employer.
- The employer furnishes the worker's tools, supplies, and equipment.
- The worker does not work for other employers.
- The worker does not advertise his or her services to the general public.

Not all of these factors must be present for a worker to be an employee. But if most of them apply, the worker is an employee. The most important factor is the first one listed, indicating an extensive amount of control over the worker. Once again: If in doubt, treat the worker as an employee.

!Key Point:

Step 3. Obtain the Social Security number (SSN) for each worker.

After determining whether a worker is an employee or self-employed, you must obtain the worker's Social Security number (SSN). A worker who does not have an SSN can obtain one by filing Form SS-5. This is a Social Security Administration (SSA) form, not an IRS form. If a self-employed worker performs services for your church (and earns at least $600 for the year), but fails to provide you with his or her SSN, then the church is required by law to withhold a specified percentage of compensation as backup withholding. The backup withholding rate is 24% for 2021.

A self-employed person can stop backup withholding by providing the church with a correct SSN.

The church will need the correct SSN to complete the worker's Form 1099-NEC (discussed later).

Churches can be penalized if the SSN they report on a Form 1099-NEC is incorrect, unless they have exercised due diligence. A church will be deemed to have exercised due diligence if it has self-employed persons provide their SSNs using Form W-9. It is a good idea for churches to present self-employed workers (e.g., guest speakers, contract laborers) with a Form W-9 and to backup withhold unless the worker returns the form. The church should retain each Form W-9 to demonstrate its due diligence.

All taxes withheld through backup withholding must be reported to the IRS on Form 945. The Form 945 for 2020 must be filed with the IRS by February 1, 2021. However, if you made deposits on time in full payment of the taxes for the year, you may file the return by February 10, 2021.

Key Point: Many times churches will host guest speakers or other workers from other countries. Non-resident aliens are not taxed in the same manner as U.S. citizens. While they are not subject to the above rules, they are subject to other mandatory reporting and withholding rules. Churches should seek professional assistance in determining the applicable reporting and withholding rules for payments made to workers from other countries.

Step 4. Have each employee complete a Form W-4.

Employees need to provide their employer with a Form W-4 to enable the employer to know how much income tax to withhold from their pay. In the past, withholding was based on the number of allowances an employee claimed on Form W-4. The IRS has made major changes to Form W-4 for tax year 2020 and future years. Note the following:

- The new design reduces the form's complexity and increases the transparency and accuracy of the withholding system. While it uses the same underlying information as the old design, it replaces complicated worksheets with more straightforward questions that make accurate withholding easier for employees.

- Withholding allowances are no longer used for the redesigned Form W-4 to increase transparency, simplicity, and accuracy. In the past, the value of a withholding allowance was tied to the amount of the personal exemption. Due to changes in law, employees currently cannot claim personal exemptions or dependency exemptions.
- Employees who have submitted Form W-4 in any year before 2019 are not required to submit a new form merely because of the redesign. Employers will continue to compute withholding based on the information from the employee’s most recently submitted Form W-4.
- The redesigned Form W-4 makes it easier for employees to have their withholding match their tax liability. But some employees may prefer to have more of their money withheld from their paychecks throughout the year and then get that money back as a refund when they file their tax returns. The simplest way to increase withholding is to enter on line 4c of the Form W-4 the additional amount employees would like their employer to withhold from each paycheck after their Form W-4 takes effect.
- To provide maximum accuracy, employees are encouraged to use the Tax Withholding Estimator available at IRS.gov/W4App. Updates and improvements to the estimator are underway that will be compatible with the redesigned Form W-4.
- Beginning in 2020, all new employees must use the redesigned form. Similarly, any employees hired prior to 2020 who wish to adjust their withholding must use the redesigned form.
- Employers may ask employees hired before 2020 to submit new Forms W-4 using the redesigned version of the form, but as part of the request you should explain that:
  - ✔ They are not required to submit a new Form W-4.
  - ✔ If they do not submit a new Form W-4, withholding will continue based on a valid form previously submitted.
- For those employees who furnished forms before 2020 and who do not furnish a new one after 2019, you must continue to withhold based on the forms previously submitted. You are not permitted to treat employees as failing to furnish Forms W-4 if they don’t furnish a new Form W-4. Note that special rules apply to Forms W-4 claiming exemption from withholding.
- Ministers generally are exempt from tax withholding with respect to compensation received from the exercise of ministry (unless they have elected voluntary withholding).

Step 5. Compute each employee’s taxable wages.

The amount of taxes that a church should withhold from an employee’s wages depends on the amount of the employee’s wages and the information contained on his or her Form W-4. A church must determine the wages of each employee that are subject to withholding. Wages subject to federal withholding include pay given to an employee for services performed. The pay may be in cash or in other non-cash forms. Measure pay that is not in money (such as property) by its fair market value and not the cost to the church. Wages often include a number of items in addition to salary. (There is a comprehensive list of examples in Step 10.)

Step 6. Determine the amount of income tax to withhold from each employee’s wages.

The way employers determine federal income tax withholding is changing to match the changes to the new Form W-4. Beginning in 2020, employers use IRS Publication 15-T to figure the amount of federal income tax to withhold from their employees’ wages.

Beginning with the 2020 Form W-4, employees will no longer be able to request adjustments to their withholding using withholding allowances. Instead, using the new Form W-4, employees will provide employers with amounts to increase or reduce taxes and amounts to increase or decrease the amount of wage income subject to income tax withholding. The computations described in Publication 15-T will allow employers to figure withholding regardless of whether the employee provided a Form W-4 in an earlier year or will provide a new Form W-4 in 2021. Publication 15-T also allows employers to figure withholding based on their payroll system (automated or manual) and withholding method of choice.

Publications 15-T describes five methods for determining the amount of income taxes to be withheld from an employee’s wages in 2021:

1. Percentage method tables for automated payroll systems
2. Wage bracket method tables for manual payroll systems with Forms W-4 from 2020 or later
3. Wage bracket method tables for manual payroll systems with Forms W-4 from before 2020
4. Percentage method tables for manual payroll systems with Forms W-4 from 2020 or later
5. Percentage method tables for manual payroll systems with Forms W-4 from before 2020

Key Point: The IRS is asserting that the new method for computing withheld taxes is allegedly simpler. But many employers believe the opposite is true. Fortunately, the IRS is launching an online withholding... estimator at IRS.gov/W4App to provide employers with the most accurate withholding method.

Wages paid to a minister as compensation for ministerial services are exempt from income tax withholding. However, ministers who report their income taxes as employees can enter into a voluntary withholding arrangement with their church. Under such an arrangement, the church withholds federal income taxes from the minister’s wages as if the minister’s wages are not exempt from withholding. Some ministers find voluntary withholding attractive since it avoids the often difficult task of budgeting for four significant quarterly tax payments.

A minister may initiate voluntary withholding by providing the church with a completed IRS Form W-4. The filing of this form is deemed to be a request for voluntary withholding. A minister may also request an amount of withholding through any other written instruction.

Voluntary withholding arrangements may be terminated at any time by either the church or minister or by mutual consent.

The tax code specifies that ministers are self-employed for Social Security with respect to services performed in the exercise of ministry. Therefore, a church whose minister elects voluntary withholding is only obligated, and may only agree, to withhold the minister’s federal income taxes. The minister is still required to use the estimated tax procedure to report and prepay SECA. However, ministers electing voluntary withholding can indicate on line 4c of Form W-4 (2020 and 2021) that they want an additional amount of income taxes to be withheld from each pay period that will be sufficient to pay the estimated SECA liability by the end of the year. This additional withholding of income taxes becomes a credit that can be applied against a minister’s SECA on Form 1040. It is reported by the church as additional income taxes withheld on its quarterly Form 941. Many churches incorrectly report these additional withholdings as FICA.

Since any tax paid by voluntary withholding is deemed to be timely paid, a minister who pays SECA using this procedure will not be liable for any underpayment penalty (assuming that a sufficient amount of taxes are withheld).

Step 7. Withhold FICA from non-minister employees’ wages.

Employees and employers each pay FICA equal to 7.65% of an employee’s wages. The 7.65% tax rate is comprised of two components: (1) a Medicare hospital insurance (HI) tax of 1.45% and (2) an old age, survivor and disability (Social Security) tax of 6.2%. There is no maximum amount of wages subject to the HI tax. For 2020, the maximum wages subject to the Social Security tax (the 6.2% amount) was $137,700. It increases to $142,800 for 2021.

Beginning in 2013, the ACA increased the employee portion of the HI tax by an additional tax of 0.9% on wages received in excess of $200,000. This additional tax is required to be withheld once wages paid to a non-minister employee reach $200,000. (This tax is not matched by the employer.) However, unlike the general 1.45% HI tax on wages, this additional tax is on the combined wages of the employee and the employee’s spouse in the case of a joint return. The threshold amount is $250,000 in the case of a joint return or surviving spouse and $200,000 for single persons. The $250,000 and $200,000 amounts are not adjusted for inflation and remain the same for 2021.

Key Point: Even though the tax does not start until $250,000 for married couples filing jointly, the withholding mandate starts with any employee’s wages exceeding $200,000. Therefore, it is possible for an employee to have the additional tax withheld but not owe the additional tax. In these instances, the additional tax withheld is treated as an additional tax payment on the employee’s individual tax return. Since the tax is on combined wages for married couples filing jointly, it is also possible that the combination of wages on a couple’s Form 1040 will initiate the tax without any associated withholding of the tax.

The Social Security tax rates for 2020 and 2021 are shown in the following table:

Key Point: Federal law allowed churches that had non-minister employees as of July 1984 to exempt themselves from the employer’s share of FICA by filing a Form 8274 with the IRS by October 30, 1984. Many churches did so. The exemption was available only to those churches that were opposed for religious reasons to the payment of Social Security taxes. (Prior to 1984, nonprofit organizations, including churches, did not participate in the Social Security system.) The effect of such an exemption is to treat all non-minister church employees as self-employed for Social Security purposes. Such employees must pay SECA if they are paid $108.28 or more for the year. Churches hiring their first non-minister employee after 1984 have until the day before the due date for their first quarterly Form 941 to file the exemption application. Churches can revoke their exemption by filing a Form 941 accompanied by full payment of FICA for that quarter. Many churches have done so, often inadvertently.
Step 8. The church must deposit the taxes it withholds.

Churches accumulate three kinds of federal payroll taxes:
1. Income taxes withheld from employees' wages
2. The employees' share of FICA (withheld from employees' wages)
3. The employer's share of FICA

Most employers must deposit payroll taxes on a monthly or semiweekly basis. An employer's deposit status is determined by the total taxes reported in a four-quarter lookback period. For 2021, the lookback period will be July 1, 2019, through June 30, 2020.

Monthly depositor rule. Churches that reported payroll taxes of $50,000 or less in the lookback period will deposit their withheld taxes for 2021 on a monthly basis. Payroll taxes withheld during each calendar month, along with the employer's share of FICA, must be deposited by the fifteenth day of the following month.

Semiweekly depositor rule. Churches that reported payroll taxes of more than $50,000 in the lookback period must deposit their withheld taxes on a semiweekly basis. This means that for paydays falling on Wednesday, Thursday, or Friday, the payroll taxes must be deposited on or by the following Wednesday. For all other paydays, the payroll taxes must be deposited on the Friday following the payday.

$100,000 Next-Day Deposit Rule. Regardless of whether a church is a monthly schedule depositor or a semiweekly schedule depositor, if accumulated taxes withheld reach $100,000 or more on any day during a deposit period, the taxes must be deposited by the next business day. Additionally, any employer subject to this deposit rule becomes a semiweekly depositor for the remainder of the calendar year and the following calendar year.

Payment with return rule. If you accumulate less than a $2,500 tax liability during the current or previous quarter, you may make a payment with Form 941 instead of depositing monthly. See IRS Publication 15 for more information.

Key Point: All deposits must be made using the Electronic Federal Tax Payment System® (EFTPS). There are penalties for depositing late or for mailing payments directly to the IRS that are required to be deposited, unless you have reasonable cause for doing so. To enroll in EFTPS, call 1-800-555-4477, or to enroll online, visit EFTPS.gov. If you do not want to use EFTPS, you can arrange for your tax professional, financial institution, payroll service, or other trusted third party to make deposits on your behalf.

Key Point: New churches in their first year of existence are treated as monthly depositors unless the $100,000 Next-Day Deposit Rule applies. Additionally, new churches indicating they will make payroll tax deposits are pre-enrolled in EFTPS and should receive a letter with their four-digit EFTPS PIN.

Step 9. All employers subject to income tax withholding, FICA, or both must file Form 941 quarterly.

Form 941 reports the number of employees and amount of FICA and withheld income taxes that are payable. Form 941 is due on the last day of the month following the end of each calendar quarter.

If any due date for filing shown above falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you may file your return on the next business day.

Form 941 may be filed electronically. For more information, visit the IRS website at IRS.gov or call 1-866-255-0654.

Key Point: Form 944 replaces Form 941 for eligible small employers. The purpose of Form 944 is to reduce the burden on the smallest employers by allowing them to file their employment tax returns annually and, in most cases, pay the employment tax due with their return. Generally, you are eligible to file this form only if your payroll taxes for the year are $1,000 or less. Do not file Form 944 unless the IRS has sent you a notice telling you to file it.

Step 10. Prepare a Form W-2 for every employee, including ministers employed by the church.

Key Point: Congress has enacted legislation requiring that Forms W-2, W-3, 1099-NEC, and 1096 be filed by January 31 and eliminating the extended due date (March 31) for electronically filed Forms W-3 and 1096.

A church reports each employee’s taxable income and withheld income taxes as well as FICA on this form. A church should furnish Copies B, C, and 2 of the 2020 Form W-2 to each employee.
Key Point: Be sure to add cents to all amounts. Make all dollar entries without a dollar sign and comma, but with a decimal point and cents. For example, $1,000 should read “1000.00”. Government scanning equipment assumes that the last two figures of any amount are cents. If you report $40,000 of income as “40000”, the scanning equipment would interpret this as 400.00 ($400)!

You may need some assistance with some of the boxes on the Form W-2. Consider the following:

Box a. Report the employee’s SSN. Insert “applied for” if an employee does not have an SSN but has applied for one. If you do not provide the correct employee name and SSN on Form W-2, you may owe a penalty unless you have reasonable cause.

Box b. Insert your church’s federal EIN. This is a nine-digit number that is assigned by the IRS. If you do not have one, you can obtain one by submitting a completed Form SS-4 to the IRS. Some churches have more than one EIN (for example, some churches that operate a private school have a number for both the church and the school). Be sure that the EIN listed on an employee’s Form W-2 is the one associated with the employee’s actual employer.

Box c. Enter your church’s name, address, and ZIP Code™. This should be the same address reported on your Form 941.

Box d. You may use this box to identify individual Forms W-2. You are not required to use this box.

Box e. Enter the employee’s name.

Box f. Enter the employee’s address and ZIP Code.

Box 1. Report all federal taxable wages paid to workers who are treated as employees for federal income tax reporting purposes. This includes the following:
- Salary, bonuses, prizes, and awards.
- Taxable fringe benefits (including cost of employer-provided group term life insurance coverage that exceeds $50,000).
- The value of the personal use of an employer-provided car.
- Most Christmas, birthday, anniversary, retirement, and other special occasion gifts paid by the church.
- Business expense reimbursements paid under a non-accountable plan (one that does not require substantiation of business expenses within a reasonable time, or does not require excess reimbursements to be returned to the church, or reimburses expenses out of salary reductions). Also note that such reimbursements are subject to income tax and Social Security withholding if paid to non-minister employees.
- Generally, payments made under an accountable plan are excluded from the employee’s gross income and are not reported on Form W-2. However, if you pay a per diem or mileage allowance and the amount paid for substantiated miles or days traveled exceeds the amount treated as substantiated under IRS rules, you must report as wages on Form W-2 the amount in excess of the amount treated as substantiated. The excess amount is subject to income tax withholding and FICA (or railroad retirement taxes, if applicable). Report the amount treated as substantiated (that is, the nontaxable portion) in Box 12 using code L.
- Non-qualified moving expenses and expense reimbursements (except for reimbursements of the travel expenses of members of the U.S. Armed Forces on active duty).
- Any portion of a minister’s SECA paid by the church.
- Amounts includible in income under a nonqualified deferred compensation plan (NQDC) because of section 409A.
- Designated Roth contributions made under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement.
- Church reimbursements of a spouse’s travel expenses incurred while accompanying a minister on a business trip that do not report in Box 1 the annual fair rental value of a parsonage or any portion of a minister's compensation that was designated (in advance) as a housing allowance by the church.
- Severance pay.
- Payment of a minister’s personal expenses by the church.
- Employee contributions to a Health Savings Account (HSA) unless contributed through a section 125 cafeteria plan.
- Employer contributions to an HSA if includible in the income of the employee.
- Employee contributions toward group health insurance premiums unless they are contributed through a section 125 cafeteria plan.
- Most “love gifts” from a church to its pastor.

For ministers who report their income taxes as employees, do not report in Box 1 the annual fair rental value of a parsonage or any portion of a minister’s compensation that was designated (in advance) as a housing allowance by the church. Also, some contributions made to certain retirement plans out of an employee’s wages are not reported. If the nontaxable portion of a housing allowance (the lesser of actual expenses or the Box 2. List all federal income taxes that you withheld from the employee’s wages. The amounts reported in this box (for all employees) should correspond to the amount of withheld income taxes reported on your four Forms 941.

Box 3. Report an employee’s wages subject to the Social Security component (the 6.2% rate for 2020) of FICA. Box 3 should not list more than the maximum wage base for the Social Security component of FICA ($137,700 for 2020, $142,800 for 2021). This box usually will be the same as Box 1, but not always. For example, certain retirement contributions are included in Box 3 that are not included in Box 1. To illustrate, contributions to a 403(b) plan by salary reduction agreement may be excludible from income and not reportable in Box 1, but they are subject to FICA and accordingly they represent Social Security and Medicare wages for non-minister employees.

Key Point: Remember that ministers (including those who report their income taxes as employees) are self-employed for Social Security with respect to their ministerial services, and so they pay SECA rather than the employee’s share of FICA.

Churches that filed a timely Form 8274 exempting themselves from the employer’s share of FICA do not report the wages of non-minister employees in this box since such employees are considered self-employed for Social Security purposes.

Box 4. Report the Social Security component (6.2%) of FICA that you withheld from a non-minister employee’s wages. This tax is imposed on all wages up to a maximum of $137,700 for 2020 and $142,800 for 2021. Do not report the church’s portion (the employer’s share) of FICA. Ministers who report their income taxes as employees are still treated as self-employed for Social Security with respect to compensation from the performance of ministerial services. For ministers, this box should be left blank.

Box 5. Report a non-minister employee’s current and deferred (if any) wages subject to the HI component (1.45%) of FICA. This will be an employee’s entire wages regardless of amount. There is no ceiling. For persons earning less than the annual maximum earnings subject to the 6.2% Social Security tax ($137,700 for 2020 and $142,800 for 2021), Boxes 3 and 5 should show the same amount. If you pay more than $137,700 ($142,800 for 2021) to a non-minister employee in 2020, Box 3 should show $137,700 ($142,800 for 2021), and Box 5 should show the full amount of wages paid.

Box 6. Report the HI component of FICA that you withheld from the non-minister employee’s wages. This tax is imposed on all wages, current and deferred (if any), regardless of amount. For ministers, this box should be left blank.

Box 10. Show the total dependent care benefits under a dependent care assistance program (section 129) paid or incurred by you for your employee. Include the fair market value of employer-provided daycare facilities and amounts paid or incurred for dependent care assistance in a section 125 cafeteria plan. Report all amounts paid or incurred, including those in excess of the $5,000 exclusion. Include any amounts over $5,000 in Boxes 1, 3, and 5. For more information, see IRS Publication 15-B.

Box 11. The purpose of Box 11 is for the SSA to determine if any part of the amount reported in Box 1 or Box 3 or 5 was earned in a prior year. The SSA uses this information to verify that they have properly applied the Social Security earnings test and paid the correct amount of benefits. Report distributions to an employee from a non-qualified plan in Box 11. Also report these distributions in Box 1. Under non-qualified plans, deferred amounts that are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture are taxable even if not distributed. Report these amounts in Boxes 3 (up to the Social Security wage base) and 5. Do not report in Box 11 deferrals included in Box 3 or 5 and deferrals for current-year services (such as those with no risk of forfeiture).

If you made distributions and also are reporting any deferrals in Box 3 or 5, do not complete Box 11. See IRS Publication 957.

Unlike qualified plans, non-qualified plans do not meet the qualification requirements for tax-favored status. Non-qualified plans include those arrangements traditionally viewed as deferring the receipt of current compensation, such as a rabbi trust. Welfare benefit plans and plans providing termination pay, or early retirement pay, are not generally non-qualified plans.

Key Point: Non-qualified retirement plans are subject to many difficult technical rules and substantial penalties for compliance failures. Additional information is available in IRS Publications 15 and 957, but qualified professional guidance is also recommended.
Box 12. Insert the appropriate code and dollar amount in this box. Insert the code letter followed by a space and then insert the dollar amount on the same line within the box. Do not enter more than four codes in this box. If more are needed, use another Form W-2. Use capital letters for the codes, and remember not to use dollar signs or commas. For example, to report a $3,000 contribution to a section 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity, you would report “E 3000.00” in this box. The codes are as follows:

A — This will not apply to church employees.
B — This will not apply to church employees.
C — You (the church) provided your employee with more than $50,000 of group term life insurance. Report the cost of coverage in excess of $50,000. It should also be included in Box 1 (and in Boxes 3 and 5 for non-minister employees). See pages 14–15 for additional information.
D — Generally not applicable to churches.
E — The church made contributions to a 403(b) plan pursuant to a salary reduction agreement on behalf of the employee. Report the amount of the contributions. While this amount ordinarily is not reported in Box 1, it is included in Boxes 3 and 5 for non-minister employees since it is subject to FICA with respect to such workers.
F — Generally not applicable to churches.
G — Generally not applicable to churches.
H — Generally not applicable to churches.
J — You (the church) are reporting sick pay. Show the amount of any sick pay that is not includible in the employee’s income because he or she contributed to the sick pay plan.
K — Generally not applicable to churches.
L — You (the church) reimbursed the employee for employee business expenses using the standard mileage rate or the per diem rates, and the amount you reimbursed exceeds the amounts allowed under these methods. Enter code L in Box 12, followed by the amount of the reimbursements that equal the allowable standard mileage or per diem rates. Any excess should be included in Box 1. For non-minister employees, report the excess in Boxes 3 (up to the Social Security wage base) and 5 as well. Do not include any per diem or mileage allowance reimbursements for employee business expenses in Box 12 if the total reimbursements are less than or equal to the amount deemed substantiated under the IRS-approved standard mileage rate or per diem rates.
M, N — Generally not applicable to churches.
P — Not applicable to churches.
Q — Generally not applicable to churches.
R — Report employer contributions to a medical savings account on behalf of the employee. Any portion that is not excluded from the employee’s income also should be included in Box 1.
S — Report employee salary reduction contributions to a SIMPLE retirement account. However, if the SIMPLE account is part of a 401(k) plan, use code D.
T — Report amounts paid (or expenses incurred) by an employer for qualified adoption expenses furnished to an employee under an adoption assistance program.
V — Generally not applicable to churches.
W — Report employer contributions to an HSA. Include amounts the employee elected to contribute using a section 125 cafeteria plan.
Y — It is no longer necessary to report deferrals under a section 409A NQDC in Box 12 using code Y.
Z — Report all amounts deferred (including earnings on deferrals) under an NQDC that are included in income under section 409A of the tax code because the NQDC fails to satisfy the requirements of section 409A. Do not include amounts properly reported on Forms 1099-MISC or W-2 for a prior year. Also, do not include amounts considered to be subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture for purposes of section 409A. The amount reported in Box 12 using code Z is also reported in Box 1.
AA — Generally not applicable to churches.
BB — Report designated Roth contributions under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement. Do not use this code to report elective deferrals under code E.
DD — The ACA requires employers to report the cost of coverage under an employer-sponsored group health plan. IRS Notice 2011-28 provided relief for smaller employers filing fewer than 250 Forms W-2 by making the reporting requirement optional for them until further guidance is issued by the IRS. The reporting under this provision is for information only; the amounts reported are not included in taxable wages and are not subject to new taxes.
EE — Generally not applicable to churches.
FF — Use this code to report the total amount of permitted benefits under a Qualified Small Employer Health Reimbursement Arrangement (QSEHRA). The maximum reimbursement for an eligible employee under a QSEHRA for 2020 is $5,250 ($10,600 if it also provides reimbursements for family members). Report the amount of payments and reimbursements the employee is entitled to receive under the QSEHRA for the calendar year, not the amount the employee actually receives. For example, a QSEHRA provides a permitted benefit of $5,000. If the employee receives reimbursements of $2,000, report a permitted benefit of $3,000 in Box 12 with code FF.

Box 13. Check the appropriate box.

• Statutory employee. Churches rarely if ever have statutory employees. These include certain drivers, insurance agents, and salespersons.
• Retirement plan. Mark this checkbox if the employee was an active participant (for any part of the year) in any of the following: (1) a qualified pension, profit-sharing, or stock bonus plan described in section 401(a) (including a 401(k) plan); (2) an annuity contract or custodial account described in section 403(b); (3) a simplified employee pension (SEP) plan; or (4) a SIMPLE retirement account.

• Third-party sick pay. Churches generally will not check this box.

Box 14. This box is optional. Use it to provide information to an employee. Some churches report a church-designated housing allowance in this box. The IRS uses Box 14 for this purpose in a comprehensive minister tax example in the current edition of its Publication 517, but this is not a requirement.

$ Tax Tip: The IRS has provided the following suggestions to reduce the discrepancies between amounts reported on Forms W-2, W-3, and 941: First, be sure the amounts on Form W-3 are the total amounts from Forms W-2. Second, reconcile Form W-3 with your four quarterly Forms 941 by comparing amounts reported for (1) income tax withholding (Box 2), (2) Social Security and Medicare wages (Boxes 3 and 5), and (3) FICA (Boxes 4 and 6). Amounts reported on Forms W-2, W-3, and 941 may not match for valid reasons. If they do not match, you should determine that the reasons are valid. The SSA will issue an inquiry notice when these amounts do not match.

Step 11. Prepare a Form 1099-NEC for every self-employed person receiving non-employee compensation of $600 or more.

By February 1, 2021, churches must furnish Copy B of Form 1099-NEC Nonemployee Compensation to any self-employed person to whom the church paid non-employee compensation of $600 or more in 2020. This form (rather than a Form W-2) should be provided to clergy who report their federal income taxes as self-employed, since the Tax Court and the IRS have both ruled that a worker who receives a Form W-2 rather than a Form 1099-NEC is presumed to be an employee rather than self-employed. Other persons to whom churches may be required to issue a Form 1099-NEC include evangelists, guest speakers, and contractors.

Churches must send Copy A of Forms 1099-NEC, along with Form 1096, to the IRS by February 1, 2021, if non-employee compensation is reported in Box 1. If you file electronically, the due date for filing Copy A with the IRS is also February 1, 2021, if you are reporting non-employee compensation in Box 1.

To illustrate, if a guest speaker visited a church in 2020 and received compensation from the church in an amount of $600 or more (net of any housing allowance or travel expenses reimbursed under an accountable plan), then the church must issue the person Copy B of Form 1099-NEC by February 1, 2021.

Exceptions apply. For example, a church need not issue a Form 1099-NEC to a corporation (other than to attorneys that are incorporated) or to a person who will be receiving a Form W-2 for services rendered to the church (all income should be reported on the Form W-2). Also, travel expense reimbursements paid to a self-employed person under an accountable reimbursement plan do not count toward the $600 figure. Additionally, if supplies are purchased from a self-employed person, the amount does not count toward the $600 filing limit if the amount for the supplies has been separately stated on the invoice from the contractor.

To complete Form 1099-NEC, the church will need to obtain the recipient’s name, address, and SSN. Churches should obtain this information at the time of the person’s visit, since it often can be difficult to obtain the necessary information at a later date. IRS Form W-9 can be used to obtain this information. If a self-employed person who is paid $600 or more during the course of a year by a church refuses to provide an SSN, then the church is required to withhold a percentage of the person’s total compensation as backup withholding. See Step 3 above. The backup withholding rate is 24% for 2021.

2019 was the last year the Form 1099-MISC was used to report non-employee compensation. Beginning with payments made in 2020, non-employee compensation is reported on Form 1099-NEC.

OTHER IMPORTANT REQUIREMENTS FOR CHURCHES

Reporting Group Term Life Insurance

You must include in the income of employees an imputed cost of employer-provided group term life insurance coverage (including death benefits under the benefits plan) that exceeds $50,000. You must also include the imputed cost of all employer-provided group term life insurance on the life of a spouse or dependent if the coverage provided exceeds $2,000. The imputed cost can be determined according to the following table:

• On or before his or her first day of compensated work, each new employee completes Section 1 of the Form I-9 within three business days of the hire. Collect a Form I-9 for all employees, including ministers, hired after November 6, 1986, even if the church has no doubt that someone is a U.S. citizen. An employee signs part of the form and the employer signs part of the form. The form’s instructions list documents employees may show to verify their identity and eligibility to work in the United States.

• Review the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services website (USCIS.gov) for instructions that will assist you in completing the Form I-9. You can also download Form I-9 from the USCIS website.

• Collect forms from new employees only, not from all applicants. When extending job offers, churches should clarify that employment is conditioned on completion of a Form I-9. Employers should remind new employees to bring their documents the first day of work. Forms should be completed no later than the end of the employee’s third day at work.

• Accept documents that appear to be genuine and relate to the employee. If churches act reasonably when deciding that a document is genuine, they will not be held responsible for a mistake. Churches may keep photocopies of original identification and verification documents with each employee form. This is not required by law but may be helpful in case there is ever a question about whether a document was genuine.

• Employers must retain an employee’s completed Form I-9 for as long as the individual works for the employer. Once the individual’s employment has terminated, the employer must determine how long after termination the Form I-9 must be retained, which is either three years after the date of hire or one year after the date employment is terminated, whichever is later. Forms I-9 can be retained either on paper or microform or electronically.

• Upon request, show completed forms to authorized officials of the Department of Homeland Security (DHS), Department of Labor (DOL), or the U.S. Department of Justice Office of Special Counsel for Immigration-Related Unfair Employment Practices (OSC). Officials will give a minimum of three days’ notice before inspection.

• Churches, like any employer, can be penalized for failing to comply with the I-9 requirement. If you fail to complete, retain, or make available for inspection a Form I-9 as required by law, you may face a civil penalty for each violation. There are additional penalties for knowingly hiring unauthorized aliens.

• Providing an employee’s SSN on Form I-9 is voluntary for all employees unless an employer participates in the USCIS E-Verify program.

Annual Certification of Racial Nondiscrimination

Churches and other religious organizations that operate, supervise, or control a private school must file a certificate of... racial nondiscrimination (Form 5578) each year with the IRS. The certificate is due by the fifteenth day of the fifth month following the end of the organization’s fiscal year. This is May 15 of the following year for organizations that operate on a calendar-year basis. For example, the Form 5578 for 2020 is due May 17, 2021 (May 15 is a Saturday).

A private school is defined as an educational organization that normally maintains a regular faculty and curriculum and normally has a regularly enrolled body of pupils or students in attendance at the place where its educational activities are regularly conducted. The term includes primary, secondary, preparatory, or high schools — and colleges and universities, whether operated as a separate legal entity or an activity of a church.

Key Point: The term “school” also includes preschools, and this is what makes the reporting requirement relevant for many churches. As many as 25% of all churches operate a preschool program.

Key Point: Independent religious schools that are not affiliated with a church or denomination and file Form 990 do not file Form 5578. Instead, they make their annual certification of racial nondiscrimination directly on Form 990 (Schedule E).

Form 5578 is easy to complete. A church official simply identifies the church and the school and certifies that the school has “satisfied the applicable requirements of sections 4.01 through 4.05 of Revenue Procedure 75-50.” This reference is to the following requirements:

1. The school has a statement in its charter, bylaws, or other governing instrument, or in a resolution of its governing body, that it has a racially nondiscriminatory policy toward students.
2. The school has a statement of its racially nondiscriminatory policy toward students in all its brochures and catalogs dealing with student admissions, programs, and scholarships.
3. The school makes its racially nondiscriminatory policy known to all segments of the general community served by the school through publication of a notice of its racially nondiscriminatory policy at least annually in a newspaper of general circulation, through utilization of the broadcast media, or by displaying a notice of its racially nondiscriminatory policy on its primary publicly accessible internet homepage at all times during its taxable year (excluding temporary outages due to website maintenance or technical problems) in a manner reasonably expected to be noticed by visitors to the homepage. (Allowing the notice to be placed on a school’s website homepage is a new concession granted by the IRS in 2019 in IRS Revenue Procedure 2019-22.) However, such notice is not required if one or more exceptions apply. These include the following: (1) During the preceding three years, the enrollment consists of students at least 75% of whom are members of the sponsoring church or religious denomination, and the school publicizes its nondiscriminatory policy in religious periodicals distributed in the community. (2) The school draws its students from local communities and follows a racially nondiscriminatory policy toward students and demonstrates that it follows a racially nondiscriminatory policy by showing that it currently enrolls students of racial minority groups in meaningful numbers.
4. The school can demonstrate that all scholarships or other comparable benefits are offered on a racially nondiscriminatory basis.

Filing the certificate of racial nondiscrimination is one of the most commonly ignored federal reporting requirements. Churches that operate a private school (including a preschool), as well as independent schools, may obtain Form 5578 from the IRS website (IRS.gov) or by calling the IRS forms number: (1-800-829-3676).

Charitable Contribution Substantiation Rules

Several important rules apply to the substantiation of charitable contributions, including the following:

Cash contributions. All cash contributions, regardless of amount, must be substantiated by either a bank record (such as a cancelled check) or a written communication from the charity showing the name of the charity, the date of the contribution, and the amount of the contribution. The recordkeeping requirements may not be satisfied by maintaining other written records. In the past, donors could substantiate cash contributions of less than $250 with “other reliable written records” showing the name of the charity, the date of the contribution, and the amount of the contribution” if no cancelled check or receipt was available. This is no longer allowed. As noted below, additional substantiation requirements apply to contributions (of cash or property) of $250 or more, and these must be satisfied as well.

Substantiation of contributions of $250 or more. Donors will not be allowed a tax deduction for any individual cash (or property) contribution of $250 or more unless they receive a written acknowledgment from the church containing the following information:
- Name of the church.
- Name of the donor (an SSN is not required).
- Date of the contribution.
- Amount of any cash contribution.
- For contributions of property (not including cash) valued by the donor at $250 or more, the receipt must describe the property. No value should be stated.

- The receipt must contain one of the following: (1) a statement that no goods or services were provided by the church in return for the contribution; (2) a statement that goods or services that a church provided in return for the contribution consisted entirely of intangible religious benefits; or (3) a description and good faith estimate of the value of goods or services other than intangible religious benefits that the church provided in return for the contribution.

- The church may either provide separate acknowledgments for each single contribution of $250 or more or one acknowledgment to substantiate several single contributions of $250 or more. Separate contributions are not aggregated for purposes of measuring the $250 threshold.

- The written acknowledgment must be received by the donor on or before the earlier of the following two dates: (1) the date the donor files a tax return claiming a deduction for the contribution or (2) the due date (including extensions) for filing the return.

Quid pro quo contributions of more than $75. If a donor makes a quid pro quo contribution of more than $75 (that is, a payment that is partly a contribution and partly a payment for goods or services received in exchange), the church must provide a written statement to the donor that satisfies two conditions:

1. The statement must inform the donor that the amount of the contribution that is tax-deductible is limited to the excess of the amount of any money (or the value of any property other than money) contributed by the donor over the value of any goods or services provided by the church or other charity in return.

2. The statement must provide the donor with a good faith estimate of the value of the goods or services furnished to the donor.

A written statement need not be issued if only token goods or services are provided to the donor or the gifts given were low-cost items in comparison to the overall donation. For 2020, token goods or services were those that cost the church no more than $11.20 to produce, contain the church’s logo and were given in exchange for a contribution of at least $56. Low-cost items include items with a value not exceeding the lesser of $112 or 2% of the amount of the contribution. This amount is adjusted annually for inflation. In addition, the rules do not apply to contributions in return for which the donor receives solely an intangible religious benefit that generally is not sold in a commercial context outside the donative context.

Gifts of property. Several additional rules apply to the substantiation of contributions of non-cash property valued by the donor at $500 or more. Donors who claim a deduction over $500 but not over $5,000 for a non-cash charitable contribution must retain certain records and complete the front side (Section A, Part I, and Part II if applicable) of IRS Form 8283 and enclose the completed form with the Form 1040 on which the charitable contribution is claimed.

Special rules apply to donations of cars, boats, and planes valued by the donor at more than $500. The church must provide the donor with a written acknowledgment and send a Form 1098-C to the IRS containing required information about the donation. Form 1098-C can be used as the written acknowledgment that must be issued to a donor. See the instructions to Form 1098-C for more information. Failure to file Form 1098-C can result in penalties assessed to the church and a loss of the donation deduction by the donor.

Key Point: Form 1098-C is required to be provided to the donor within a short time frame of the date of the gift. It is not provided to the donor at the end of the tax year. All Forms 1098-C issued during a tax year should be provided to the IRS with Form 1096 by February 28 of the next tax year.

For contributions of non-cash property valued at more than $5,000 ($10,000 for privately held stock), a donor must obtain a qualified appraisal of the donated property from a qualified appraiser and complete a qualified appraisal summary (Section B of Form 8283) and have the summary signed by the appraiser and a church representative. The completed Form 8283 is then enclosed with the Form 1040 on which the charitable contribution deduction is claimed. The appraisal must be enclosed for contributions of property (other than inventory and publicly traded securities) in excess of $500,000.

ACA Reporting

The ACA imposes the most significant reporting obligations since the introduction of Form W-2 in 1943. In fact, the new reporting obligations are similar to Form W-2 in that there are forms that must be issued to individual employees and a transmittal form that is sent to the IRS along with copies of all the forms issued to employees. And, as with Form W-2, the IRS can assess penalties for failure to comply with the new reporting obligations. Because of the similarities of the new reporting requirements to Form W-2, some are calling them the “health care W-2s”. Of course, the analogy is not perfect. The Form W-2 reports compensation and tax withholding, while the new forms report health insurance information. The reporting requirements consist of the following forms:

- Providers of minimum essential coverage are required to file...
Forms 1094-B and 1095-B. These forms are used to report certain information to the IRS and to employees about individuals who are covered by minimum essential coverage and therefore aren’t liable for the individual shared responsibility payment penalty. These forms must be filed by February 28, 2021 (March 31, 2021, if filed electronically).

- Applicable large employers, generally employers with 50 or more full-time employees (including full-time equivalent employees) in the previous year, must file one or more Forms 1094-C (including a Form 1094-C designated as the Authoritative Transmittal, whether or not filing multiple Forms 1094-C) and must file a Form 1095-C for each employee who was a full-time employee of the employer for any month of the calendar year. Generally, the employer is required to furnish a copy of the Form 1095-C (or a substitute form) to the employee. These forms must be filed by February 28, 2021 (March 31, 2021, if filed electronically). The information reported on Forms 1094-C and 1095-C is used to determine whether an employer owes a payment under the employer shared responsibility provisions of the ACA (the employer mandate or pay or play provisions).

See the instructions to these forms on the IRS website (IRS.gov) for more information.

Key Point: Churches with fewer than 50 full-time employees and an insured group health plan generally have no reporting obligation. They are not required to file Forms 1094-C and 1095-C since they have fewer than 50 employees, and their group plan insurer files the Forms 1094-B and 1095-B.
