My name is Angela McClain, and I am a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional who will work with you to discover your financial goals and objectives and then develop a customized plan of action designed to take you to and through retirement. My industry experience has created opportunities to present and lead discussion panels on topics such as money management, retirement planning and financial stewardship — providing specialized guidance to women and millennials. During my time at GuideStone®, I have had the privilege of supporting executive leaders, ministers and a variety of other professionals to build investment and planning strategies.

After my tenure at an independent bank, I began serving at GuideStone in 2006. I hold a Bachelor of Business Administration in finance and a Master of Business Administration in management — both from Dallas Baptist University.

My husband, Shaun, and I have two daughters, Jade and Piper. We love to travel as a family, serve in our local church as life group leaders and teach in the children's ministry.

I understand GuideStone clients want to honor the Lord with their assets in the same way they serve Him with their lives. As a believer, my biblical perspective influences my client conversations regarding money management and financial stewardship. So regardless of the level of resources the Lord has entrusted to you, my goal is to help you steward them wisely.

How can I serve you? Please reach out to me at the contact information listed above. I look forward to working with you.
