My name is Ansley Dale, and I serve as a financial advisor at GuideStone®. I joined GuideStone in 2026 and have been working in the financial services industry since 2024. I am passionate about working with individuals and families to provide guidance as they navigate important financial decisions and pursue long-term confidence. Through personalized strategies and thoughtful guidance, I seek to serve our members well and support them in pursuing their unique goals and objectives.

I graduated from Baylor University with a Bachelor of Business Administration in finance and marketing. I hold FINRA Series 7 and Series 66 licenses. My desire to work in the financial services industry is driven by a calling to serve others faithfully. Having grown up in a family deeply rooted in faith, with both my grandfather and great-grandfather serving as pastors in their churches, I developed a heart for supporting those who dedicate their lives to ministry.

By helping individuals and families enhance their financial security and resilience, I have the opportunity to live out that calling while making a difference in the lives of others. It is a joy to help our members steward their resources through a biblical lens with confidence and purpose.

Outside of work, I enjoy spending time with friends and family, watching sports, and traveling to the beach. I look forward to serving you.

Series exams are administered by the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority. Individuals are required to pass certain examinations and/or meet other criteria in order to be eligible to partake in certain securities industry activities. A FINRA license is not an endorsement or guarantee of an individual's expertise, skills or quality of service or products.
