My name is Chandler Blake, and I serve as a wealth advisor at GuideStone®. I am privileged to work with our members, get to know their stories, learn their goals and implement financial plans unique to their personal situations. Throughout my career, I have worked with several other financial services firms and am honored to work at a firm where I can combine my skill with my faith.

I have a Bachelor of Arts in finance and business administration with an emphasis in entrepreneurship from Ouachita Baptist University, where I also played on the baseball team. I hold FINRA® Series 7 and 66 licenses*.

I have been married to my wife Meagan since 2018, and we are the proud parents of our daughter Kaia. Outside of work I love golfing, traveling as a family and watching sports.

My mission is to help our members steward what the Lord has blessed them with because I believe that every person deserves the dignity of a secure financial future. I can't wait to serve you and your family.
