

All these people have put in gifts out of their surplus, but she out of her poverty has put in all she had to live on. Luke 21:4 (CSB)

Thank you so much for giving to Mission:Dignity®. 100% of your gifts go directly to assist now more than 2,700 retired ministers and widows in need. Further, you help them during times of emergency!

With so many being affected by natural disasters like Hurricane Ian, we received some remarkable stories from those who have given all their lives for the Lord. One story was from widow Nancy Alexander, who served for 56 years with her husband, Bobby until he passed away in 2019. She wrote about her experience in the aftermath of the hurricane:

“I walked through water up to my waist with a small bag over my head until we got to safety. I didn’t think I was going to make it, but I remembered Jesus saying, “Who do you think I am?” Of course, our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and I had the strength to keep going. I’ve been on my knees every night praising and thanking him for your ministry to those of us barely making it. Please continue to pray for all those affected. I pray that through this disaster some will come closer to the Lord, and those who don’t know him will come to know him. God bless all of you.”

Even through the disaster, she prays for others to come to Christ! What a heart for the Lord!

If you’d like to give to help those affected by such emergencies, you may donate to the Emergency Grant Fund, which covers significant, one-time expenses our Mission:Dignity recipients have trouble paying, such as disaster recovery costs, hearing aids, eyeglasses, dentures, medical bills and house repair.

Working Together,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Aaron J. Meraz', written in a cursive style.

Aaron J. Meraz, PhD., DMin.
Director of Mission:Dignity

P.S. Mark your calendar for Giving Tuesday, November 29! Due to generous donors, gifts will be matched up to $600,000 (maybe more!).